

a. Introduction

i	Genesis of the Committee	The Committee on Subordinate Legislation at their sitting held on Wednesday the 26 th November 1959 have framed Internal Working Rules to facilitate smooth working of the Committee.
ii	Constitution of the Committee	The Committee shall consist of twenty members of whom fifteen shall be elected by the Assembly from among its members and five by the Council from among its members according to the principle of proportional representation by means of single transferable vote.
iii	Scope of the Committee	The Committee on Subordinate Legislation scrutinize and report the Legislature whether the powers to make regulations, rules, sub-rules, bye-laws, etc., conferred by the Constitution or delegated by Parliament on the State Legislature being properly exercised within such delegations.
iv	Nature and Functions of the Committee	As soon may be, after each regulation, rule, sub-rule, bye-law, etc., made in pursuance of provisions of the Constitution or in exercise of the powers delegated by Parliament or the State Legislature is laid before the House or published in the Gazette, the Committee shall, in particular, consider. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) whether it is in accord with the general objects or the Constitution or the Act pursuant to which it is made; (ii) whether it contains matter which in the opinion of the Committee should more properly be dealt within an Act of Legislature; (iii) whether it contains imposition of any tax; (iv) whether it directly or indirectly bars the, jurisdiction of the courts; (v) whether it gives retrospective effect to any of the provisions in respect of which the Constitution or the Act does not expressly give any such power: (vi) whether it involves expenditure from the Consolidated Fund of the State or the public revenues: (vii) whether it appears to make some unusual or unexpected use of the powers conferred by the Constitution of the Act pursuant to which it is made: (viii) whether there appears to have been unjustifiable delay in its publication or in laying it before the Legislature;

v	Significance and Importance of Committee's Work	Laying of regulation rule etc., on the Table of the House: (1) Where a regulation, rule, sub-rule/bye-law etc., framed pursuance of the Parliament or Constitution or of the legislative functions delegated by the Legislature to a subordinate authority is laid before the House, period specified in the Constitution or the relevant Act for which it is required to be laid shall be completed before the House is adjourned sine die and later prorogued unless otherwise provided in the Constitution on the relevant Act, (2) Where the specified period is not so completed the regulation, rule, sub-rule, bye-law, etc., shall be re-laid in the succeeding session or sessions until the said period is completed. Allotment of time for discussion of amendment: The Speaker shall, in consultation with the Leader of the House, fix a day or days or part of a day as he may think fit for the consideration and Passing of an amendment to such regulation, rule, sub-rule, bye-law etc., of which notice may be given by a member. Provided that notice of the amendment shall be in such form as the Speaker may consider appropriate and shall comply with these rules. Transmission of amendment to Council: After an amendment is passed by the Assembly it shall be transmitted to the Council for its concurrence and on a receipt of a message from the council agreeing to the amendment, it shall be forwarded by the Secretary to the Minister concerned. Amendment of returned by Council: If the Council disagrees with the amendment passed by the Assembly or agrees subject to further amendment thereof, or proposes an amendment in substitution or agree with the Council in the proposed amendment or insist on the original amendment passed by the Assembly. A message in either case shall be sent to the Council. In case the House agrees to the amendment as further amended by the Council, the

		amended shall be forwarded by the Secretary to the Minister concerned. Disagreement between Houses: If the Council agrees to the original amendment passed by the Assembly, it shall be sent by the Secretary to the Minister concerned but if the Council disagrees or insists on an amendment to which the Assembly has not agreed, the Houses shall be deemed to have finally disagreed, and all further proceedings thereon shall be dropped. Regulation rule, etc., as amended to be laid on the Table: If a regulation, rule, sub-rule, bye-law etc., is modified in accordance with the amendment passed by the Houses the amended regulation rule, sub-rule, bye-law, etc., shall be laid on the Table.
