The text of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Karnataka Legislative Assembly has been updated in this edition by incorporating the amendments adopted by the House based on the recommendations of the Rules Committee to rule numbers 1, 2, 7 (6), 8(4), 19(3), 26A, 31, 39(3), 42(1), 44(2), 80, 72, 142, 163, 175, 177, 201, 212, 228, 232, 239, 240, 241, 239 to 300, 307, 310 and 328.

During the conference of Presiding Officers held during the year 1975 unanimous resolutions were adopted for introducing the Subject Committee system with a view to oversee the activities of the Government Departments so as to ensure their accountability to the Legislature. Subject Committee system was introduced in Kerala Legislative Assembly for the first time in the country during 1980. Later on, such Subject Committees were also constituted in West Bengal Legislature during 1969. Taking into consideration the report of Thiruca Dural Committee, the functioning of Subject Committees in Kerala Legislative and West Bengal, the Parliament also constituted Departmentally Related Subject Committees during the year 1990.

The Rules Committee of Karnataka Legislative Assembly examined the question of constitution of Subject Committees in Karnataka Legislature. The suggestions made by the Hon'ble Speaker, Legislative Assembly and the Hon'ble Chairman, Legislative Council after their discussions with Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha, Officers of Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha and Hon'ble Speakers of Kerala and West Bengal Legislative Assemblies, the Rules Committee finally recommended for constituting departmentally related standing committees to be called as "Subject Committees".
The Rules Committee also recommended for constitution of a new committee called the "Committee on Welfare of Women and Children".

The Rules of Procedure have been amended accordingly to give effect to the recommendations of the Rules Committee in respect of constitution of Subject Committees, Committee on Welfare of Women and Children and other modifications to the Rules w.e.f. 7-9-94.

The Subject Committees have been constituted in Karnataka Legislative Assembly during 1994. Prior to the constitution of these committees, the Hon'ble Speaker of the Legislative Assembly and the Hon'ble Chairman of the Legislative Council had visited the States where such committees were functioning and discussed with the Hon'ble Speakers of the Kerala Legislative Assembly, West Bengal Legislative Assembly and the Lok Sabha and framed the Rules with certain modifications and implemented them.

The Business Advisory Committee of the Legislative Assembly in the meeting held on 4-3-1996, decided to bring certain improvements as far as the functioning of the Subject Committees of the Karnataka Legislature are concerned.

Likewise, the Rules Committee of Legislature was constituted on 5-3-1996 to review the Amendments and submit a report. This Committee met on 6-3-1996 and recommended for the Amendments to the Rules 294, 294(1), 294(3), 297 and 301 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Karnataka Legislative Assembly.
The report containing the recommendations of the Rules Committee for implementation of the above Amendments was presented before the Assembly on 7-3-1996 and put to vote and the same was adopted. The previous Subject Committees consisted of 17 members, 12 of them being nominated from the Legislative Assembly and 5 from the Legislative Council. In view of this, the Subject Committees are intended to consist of 10 members, 7 of which shall be from the Legislative Assembly and 3 from the Legislative Council.

A restriction has also been imposed vide Rule 294(3) to the effect that the Chairman of the Subject Committees listed in the Appendices I and II, who are nominated by the Hon'ble Chairman and the Hon'ble Speaker, shall not be nominated for the second time.

In Rule 297, it is indicated that the Subject Committees shall submit Report on Demand for Grants within 4 weeks of the constitution of the Committee and shall not ask for any extension of time. In Rule 301, there is an Amendment to the effect that the Subject Committees shall not undertake study tours outside States.

It is expected that with the incorporation of the Amendments, the Subject Committees would be able to function still more effectively.

The working of the Subject Committees since 1994 has been studied and it was found that there is duplication of discussion on the budget. The functions of the Subject Committees also overlap with other statutory committees. The Business Advisory Committee at its meeting has decided that the Government has taken vote on account only for 3 months in view of discontinuation of the Subject Committee. As such, the relevant Rules in the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business from 293 to 304 have been deleted. In order to accommodate more Members to participate in other Statutory Committees the strength of members has been increased by a motion moved in the House on 27.3.98.

The relevant Rules have been amended accordingly to give effect to the Amendments in respect of deletion of Subject Committees and increase in number of the Standing Committees.

Motion was moved to delete Rule No. 211(1) and for substituting Rule No. 370 and the same was adopted on 9th May, 1998.

Again Rule 271(a), (b), 277, 288, 290 and 305 motion was moved to increase the strength of Members were amended by moving a motion for increase of strength of Members in the Standing Committees on 17th April 2000.

The departmentally related Subject Committees were again introduced by amending relevant Rules from 293 to 300 of Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of Karnataka Legislative Assembly by moving a motion on 27-3-2001.

Rules 293 to 300 relating to the departmentally related Subject Committees were deleted vide Notification No. LGA/47/ Misc/2005, dated: 2-4-2005.

Based on the Report of Rules Committee, the House adopted on 12.03.2010 the following amendments to Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of Karnataka Legislative Assembly.
In the light of the proposal of Ministry of Rural Development and Panchayat Raj, Government of India to constitute a separate Committee for Local Bodies and Panchayat Raj Institutions, the 11th Finance Committee has issued guidelines for maintenance of Accounts and Audit of Local Bodies and Panchayat Raj Institutions. The Rules Committee after examining in detail the functioning of Committees of Local Bodies existing in other States recommended to constitute a Committee on Local Bodies and Panchayat Raj Institutions by inserting Rule 206A in Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Karnataka Legislative Assembly.

Rule 30 of Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business is amended and in which Thursday is allotted for transaction of Private Members Business instead of Friday.

Rule 212(1) has been amended by inserting the minimum number of members to be present in the Committee meetings and the Quorum to constitute a sitting of the Committee shall be, as near as may be one-third of the total number of members of the Committee.

As per the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business, a Minister shall not be elected as member of the Committee and that if a member after the election to the Committee is appointed as Minister shall cease to be a member of the Committee. The said Rule existed in some of the Committees and now the Rule has been incorporated uniformly in all the Committees.

The Joint Rules Committee constituted during the tenure of 14th Legislative Assembly submitted an Interim Report to Karnataka Legislative Assembly on 21.11.2016 recommending certain amendments to the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Karnataka Legislative Assembly. The Karnataka Legislative Assembly on 29.11.2016 agreed to the recommendations except for the recommendations relating to the constitution of New Committees proposed in Part-2 of the said Report. Accordingly, definition relating to “Precincts of the House”, “Quorum”, “Sitting” and “Zero Hour” have been modified / included in the Rules. Certain amendments have been made to Rule Nos. 14, 39, 57A, 60, 64(1) and 65 and a new Chapter-VII A pertaining to Zero Hour (Rule Nos. 59A, B, C and D) has been added.

(ii) other business of a formal character may be transacted on such day before the House commences or continues the discussion on the Address.

(2) The discussion on the Address may be postponed in favour of a Government Bill or other Government business on a motion being made that the discussion on the Address be adjourned to a subsequent day to be appointed by Speaker. The Speaker shall forthwith put the question, no amendments or debate being allowed.

(3) The discussion on the Address shall be interrupted in the course of a sitting by an adjournment motion under rule 60.

Government's right of reply:-

23. The Chief Minister or any other Minister, whether he has previously taken part in the discussion or not, shall on behalf of the Government have a general right of explaining the position of the Government at the end of the discussion and the Speaker may enquire how much time will be required for the speech so that he may fix the hour by which the discussion shall conclude.

Time limit for speeches:-

24. The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for speeches after taking the sense of the House.

Governor's Address under Article 175(1) of the Constitution:-

25. The Speaker may allot time for the discussion of the matters referred to in the Governor's Address under Article 175(1) of the Constitution.

Messages by the Governor:-

26. Where a message from the Governor for the House under Article 175(2) of the Constitution is received by the Speaker, he shall read the message to the House and give necessary directions in regard to the procedure that shall be followed for the consideration of matters referred to in the message. In giving these directions, the Speaker shall be empowered to suspend or vary the rules to such extent as may be necessary.

Observance of Order during Governor's Address:-

27. When the Houses of the Legislature are assembled together under Article 175 or 176 or when the members of the Assembly alone are assembled under Article 175 of the Constitution, no member shall obstruct or interrupt the Address either before or after the Address during its duration with any speech or point of order or in any other manner and such obstruction or interruption shall be regarded as a gross breach of order of the House and shall be dealt with by the Speaker as such in the next sitting of the Assembly

Address at the time of Prorogation:-

28. When the Governor prorogues the House or Houses he may address the House or Houses as the case may be.
CHAPTER VI
ARRANGEMENT OF BUSINESS AND LIST OF BUSINESS

Arrangement of Government Business:-

29. On days allotted for the transaction of Government business, such business shall have precedence and the Secretary, shall arrange that business in such order as the Speaker may, in consultation with the Leader of the House determine.

Provided that such order of business shall not be varied on the day that business is set down for disposal unless the Speaker is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for such variation.

Allotment of time for Private Members’ Business:-

30. The last two and a half hours of a sitting on Thursday shall be allotted for the transaction of Private Members’ Business.

Provided that the Speaker may allot different Thursdays for the disposal of different classes of such business and on Thursdays so allotted for any particular class of business, of that class shall have precedence.

Provided further that the Speaker may in consultation with the Leader of the House, may allot any day other than a Thursday for the transaction of Private Members’ Business.

Provided further that if there is no sitting of the House on a Thursday, the Speaker may direct that two and a half hours on any other day in the week may be allotted for Private Members’ Business.

Private Members’ business shall be taken up for discussion on Thursday. Also a time limit shall be fixed for the Members who move the resolution and for other members for discussion. The discussion shall be completed within the time stipulated by the Speaker and the discussion shall be completed on the same day with a reply by the Government. If the Member who moved the resolution is not present in the House, opportunity be given for discussion on the next day and discussion shall be completed with a reply by the Government on the same day.

d) Bills which have been passed by the Council and transmitted to the House;
e) Bills in respect of which a motion has been carried that the Bill be taken into consideration;
f) Bills in respect of which the report of a Select or Joint Committee has been presented;
g) Bills which have been circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon;
h) Bills introduced and in respect of which no further motion has been made or carried; and
i) Other Bills;

2) The relative precedence of Bills falling under same clause of sub-rule (1) shall be determined by ballot to be held in accordance with the orders made by the Speaker and in such day in such manner as the Speaker may direct;

Provided that the motion in respect of Bills falling under clause (a) of sub-rule (1) shall be entered in the list of business in the order in which notices of such motions have been received in point of time;

Provided further that Bills falling under clause (h) of sub-rule (1) which are classified by the Committee on Private Members' Bills and Resolutions as Category-A shall have precedence over Bills classified as Category-B, and that the relative precedence of Bills falling under each of these categories shall be determined by ballot separately.

Provided further that where the Committee has not classified the Bills falling under clause (h) of sub-rule (1) as Category-A and Category-B the order in which such Bills shall be put down in the list of business shall be determined by ballot in accordance with such directions as the Speaker may give.

The Speaker may, by special order to be announced in the House make such variations in the relative precedences of Bills set out in sub rule (1) as he may consider necessary or convenient.

Precedence of Private Members' Resolutions:

32. A ballot of names of members desiring to move a resolution shall be held in accordance with orders made by the Speaker on such day as the Speaker may direct.

Business outstanding at the end of day:

33. Private Members' Business set down for the day allotted for that class of business and not disposed of on that day shall not be set down for any subsequent day, unless it has gained priority at the ballot held with reference to that day.

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in rules 31 and 32 any such business which is under discussion at the end of that day shall be set down for the next day allotted to business of that class and shall have precedence over all other business set down for that day.

Resumption of adjourned debate on Private Members' Bill or Resolution:

34. (1) Where a motion being carried, the debate on a Private Members Bill or Resolution is adjourned to the next day allotted for Private Member's business in the same or next session it shall not be set down for further discussion unless it has gained priority at the ballot.

2) When the debate on a Private Member's Bill or Resolution is adjourned sine die, the members-in-charge of the Bill or the mover of the resolution, as the case may be, may, if he wishes to proceed with such Bill or resolution, on a subsequent day allotted for Private Member's Business give notice for resumption of the adjourned debate and on receipt of such notice the relative precedence of such Bill or Resolution shall be determined by ballot.

List of Business:-

35. (1) A list of business for the day shall be prepared by the Secretary and a copy thereof together with other papers if any, shall be made available for the use of every member the previous day;

Provided the Speaker may suspend the operation of this rule in respect of any particular day or days.

2) Save as otherwise provided in these rules, no business not included in the list of business for the day shall be transacted at any meeting without the leave of the Speaker.

3) Save as otherwise provided in the rules or unless the Speaker otherwise directs no business requiring notice shall be set down for a day earlier than the day after that on which the period of the notice necessary for that class of business expires.

4) Unless the Speaker otherwise directs, not more than 5 resolutions in addition to any resolution which is outstanding under the proviso to rule 33, shall be set down in the list of business for any day allotted for the disposal of Private Member's Resolution.

the list of questions for oral answer shall be included in the list of questions for written answer, in accordance with the orders of the Speaker.

b) In the list of questions for written answer on any one day, not more than four questions by the same member if he has one question in the list of questions for oral answer, and not more than five questions if he has none in the list of questions for oral answer, and not more than 230 questions in all, shall be included.

3) No oral reply shall be required to a question to which a written answer is given and no supplementary questions shall be asked in respect thereof.

Question to Private Members:-

46. A question may be addressed to a Private Member provided the subject matter of the question relates to some Bill, resolution or other matter connected with the business of the House for which that member is responsible; and the procedure in regard to such questions shall, as far as may be, be the same as that followed in the case of questions addressed to a Minister with such variations as the Speaker may consider necessary or convenient.

Conditions of admissibility of questions:-

47. (1) Subject to the provisions of Sub-rule (2), a question may be asked for the purpose of obtaining information on a matter of public importance within the special cognisance of the Minister to whom it is addressed.

(2) The right to ask a question is governed by the following conditions:-

(a) It shall relate to a single matter;

(b) It shall be so framed as to be merely a request for information;

(c) It shall not be vague or unintelligible;

(d) It shall not bring in any name or statement not strictly necessary to make the question intelligible;

(e) If it contains a statement, the member shall make himself responsible for the accuracy of the statement;
(f) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations, epithets or defamatory statements;

(g) it shall not ask for an expression of opinion or the solution of an abstract legal question or of a hypothetical proposition;

(h) it shall not ask as to the character or conduct of any person except in his official or public capacity;

(i) it shall not ordinarily exceed one hundred and fifty words;

(j) it shall not relate to a matter which is not the concern of the Government;

(k) it shall not ask about proceedings in a Committee which have not been placed before the House by a report from the Committee;

(l) it shall not make or imply a charge of a personal character;

(m) it shall not raise questions of policy too large to be dealt with within the limits of an answer to a question;

(n) it shall not repeat in substance to questions already answered or to which an answer has been refused;

(o) it shall not ask for information on trivial matters;

(p) it shall not ordinarily ask for information on matters of past history;

(q) it shall not ask for information set forth in accessible documents or in ordinary works of reference;

(r) it shall not raise matters under the control of bodies or persons not primarily responsible to the State Government;

(s) it shall not ask for information on a matter which is under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of India;

(t) it shall not ask for information regarding Cabinet discussions, or advice given to the Governor in relation to any matter in respect of which there is a constitutional, statutory, or conventional obligation not to disclose information;

(u) it shall not ordinarily ask about matters pending before any statutory tribunal or statutory authority performing any Judicial or quasi-judicial functions or any commission or Court of Enquiry appointed to enquire into or investigate any matter but may refer to matters concerned with procedure or subject or stage of enquiry, if it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of the matter by the Tribunal or Commission or Court of Enquiry;
(v) it may ask for an explanation of the intentions of the Government in respect of a matter of immediate concern, provided that the question is not in substance a suggestion for any particular action in a matter raised by the member asking the question.

Questions on matter of correspondence between the Government, the Government of India or any other State Governments.
48. In matters which are or have been the subject of correspondence between the Government and the Government of India or the Government of any other State, no question shall be asked except as to matters of fact, and the answer shall be confined to a statement of fact.

Speaker to decide admissibility of questions:-
49. (1) The Speaker shall decide whether a question, or a part thereof, is or is not admissible under these rules and may disallow any question, or a part thereof, when in his opinion it is an abuse of the right of questioning or is calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the House or is in contravention of these rules.
(2) Subject to the provisions of Rule 44, the Speaker may direct that a question be placed on the list of questions for answer on a date later than that specified by a member in his notice, if he is of the opinion that a longer period is necessary to decide whether the question is or is not admissible.

Speaker to decide if a question is to be treated as starred or unstarréd:-
50. If in the opinion of the Speaker any question put down for oral answer is of such a nature that a written reply would be more appropriate, the Speaker may direct that such question be placed on the list of questions for written answer.

Provided that the Speaker may, if he thinks fit, call upon the member who has given notice of a question for oral answer to state in brief his reasons for desiring an oral answer and after considering the same, may direct that the question be included in the list of questions for written answer.

List of questions:-

51. Questions which have not been disallowed shall be entered in the list of questions for the day for oral or written answer, as the case may be, in accordance with the orders of the Speaker.

Mode of asking questions:-

52. (1) When the time for asking questions arrives, the Speaker shall call successively each member in whose name a question appears on the list of questions.

(2) The member so called shall rise in his place and unless he states that it is not his intention to ask the question standing in his name, ask the question by reference to its number on the list of questions.

(3) After all the questions have been called, the Speaker may, if time permits, call again any question which has not been asked by reason of the absence of the member in whose name it stands.

Starred Questions of absent members:-

53. (1) When all the question for which oral answers are desired have been called, the Speaker, may, if time permits, call again any question which has not been asked by reason of the absence of the member in whose name it stands, and may give permission to a member to ask a question standing in the name of another member, if so authorised.

(2) If on a question being called, it is not asked or the member in whose name it stands is absent, the Speaker at the request of any member present that the answer to it be given.

Supplementary Questions:-

54. (1) No discussion shall be permitted during the time for questions under Rule 38 in respect of any question or of any answer given to a question.

(2) Any member when called by the Speaker may ask a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact regarding which an answer has been given.

Provided that the Speaker shall disallow any supplementary question, if in his opinion it infringes the rule regarding question.

Publicity of answer to questions in advance:-

55. Answer to questions which Ministers propose to give in the House shall not be released for publication until the answers have actually been given on the floor of the House or laid on the Table.

Amending questions to secure their compliance with rules:
56. Where the form of the subject matter of a question is, in the opinion of the Speaker, in contravention of the rules, he may amend the question to secure its compliance with the rule and inform the member concerned accordingly.

Lapse of Pending Questions referred to members:
57. Where a reference is made to a member in connection with the notice of a question and no reply is received or a reply received from him is too late for the consideration of the Speaker and the placing of the question, it admitted, on the list of questions for an appropriate date, such notice shall be deemed to have lapsed.

Reply is compulsory:

57 (A) Replies to all the Questions listed for Oral and Written Answers shall be furnished at least by 15.00 hrs. on the day prior to the date on which the question is listed for answer. Provided, that if the House is adjourned sine die, for any reason, before the actual date of adjournment as per the provisional programme, the questions admitted either for oral or written answers for that period shall be deemed as Tabled on the last day of closure of the House and, the answers to the same shall, unless otherwise permitted, be furnished to the Karnataka Legislative Assembly Secretariat within 15 days from the originally declared closure of the session as per the bulletin for onward transmission to Members.

Short notice questions:
58. (1) A question relating to a matter of public importance may be asked with notice shorter than ten clear days and if the Speaker is of opinion that the question is of an urgent character, he may direct that an enquiry be made from the Minister concerned if he is in a position to reply and, if so, on what date.

(2) If the Minister concerned agrees to reply, such question shall be answered on a day to be indicated by him and shall be called immediately after the questions which have appeared on the list of questions for oral answer have been disposed of.

(3) If the Minister is unable to answer the question at short notice and the Speaker is of opinion that the question is of sufficient public importance to be orally answered in the House, he may direct that the question be placed as the first question on the list of questions for eighth day from the date of intimation to Government that the Speaker has admitted the question; Provided that not more than one such question shall be accorded first priority on the list of questions for any one day.

(4) Where a notice of a short notice question is signed by more than one member, it shall be deemed to have been given by the first signatory only.
(5) Where two or more members give short notice questions on the same subject and one of the questions is accepted for answer at short notice, names of not more than four members, other than the one whose notice has been admitted as determined by ballot, shall be shown against the admitted question;
Provided that the Speaker may direct that all the notices be consolidated into a single notice if in his opinion it is desirable to have a single self contained question covering all the important points raised by member, and the Minister shall then give his reply to the consolidated question;
Provided further that in the case of consolidated question, names of not more than four members, other than the one whose notice has been admitted, as determined by ballot, shall be shown against the question.
(6) Where a member desires an oral answer to a question at a shorter notice, he shall briefly state the reasons for asking the question with short notice. Where no reasons have been assigned in the notice of the question, the question shall be returned to the member;
(7) The member who has given notice of the question shall be in his seat to ask the question by reference to its number on the list of question when called by the Speaker and the Minister concerned shall give a reply immediately; Provided that when a question is shown in the names of more than one member, the Speaker shall call the name of the first member; or in his absence, any other name;
(8) In other respects, the procedure for short notice questions shall be the same as for ordinary questions for oral answer with such modification as the Speaker may consider necessary or convenient.
Discussion on matter of Public Importance arising out of answer to questions:-

59. (1) The Speaker shall allot half-an-hour on two days in a week namely, Tuesdays and Thursdays at the conclusion of the business of the day for raising discussion on a matter of sufficient public importance which has been a subject of a recent question in the House, irrespective of the fact whether, it was answered on the floor of the House or the answer to it has been laid on the Table of the House and the answer to which needs elucidation on a matter of fact.

Provided that the Speaker may allot any day instead of Tuesday or Thursday if such a course is, in his opinion necessary or convenient.

(2) A member wishing to raise a matter shall give notice in writing to the Secretary, three days in advance of the day on which the matter is desired to be raised and shall shortly specify the point or points that he wishes to raise.

Provided that the notice shall be accompanied by an explanatory note stating the reasons for raising discussion on the matter in question.

Provided further that the Speaker may, with the consent of the Minister concerned, waive the requirement concerning the period of notice.

(3) The Speaker shall decide whether the matter is of sufficient public importance to be put down for discussion and the notice shall be taken in the order of receipt of the office.

(4) There shall be no formal motion before the House nor voting. The member who has given notice may make a short statement and the Minister concerned shall reply briefly. Any member who has previously intimated to the Speaker may be permitted to ask a question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact.
59(A). Immediately after the Question Hour and laying of papers, if any, and before the list of business of the day is entered upon, any member who wishes to raise any matter of urgent public importance that has occurred between the adjournment of previous day's sitting and before the commencement of the current day's sitting, and which cannot be raised under any other provisions of these Rules, can do so, with the previous permission of the Speaker.

Time for giving Notice:

59(B). Notice of Zero Hour shall not exceed 150 words and shall be in writing given in person by the member or through his representative to the Speaker or to his office. The notice shall be given one hour before the commencement of the sitting on the day on which it is proposed to be raised.

Provided that a member shall not give more than one notice in a day.

Provided further that not more than 10 notices shall be allowed to be raised in a day's sitting of which 5 shall be on the basis of point of time of their receipt and 5 shall be on the discretion of the Speaker.

Time limit for Speeches:

59(C). No speech on a zero hour notice, shall, except with the permission of the Speaker, exceed the duration three minutes.

Reply by the Government:

59(D). Reply to issues raised in Zero Hour shall as far as possible be given immediately after submission by the Member or within two days.

Speaker's consent necessary to make motion:-

 60. Subject to the provisions of these rules, a motion for an adjournment of the business of the House for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance only when there is failure on the part of the Government to perform the duties enjoined by the constitution and the law shall be made with the consent of the Speaker after Question Hour and Zero Hour.

Time for giving notice:-

61. Notice of an adjournment motion shall be given one hour before the commencement of the sitting and the day on which the motion is proposed to be made to the Secretary and copies thereof shall be endorsed to;

i) The Speaker;
ii) The Leader of the House;
iii) The Minister concerned; and
iv) The Parliamentary Affairs Minister;

Restrictions on right to move motion:-

62. The right to move the Motion for adjournment of the House for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance shall be subject to the following restrictions, namely:-

i) not more than one such motion shall be made at the same sitting;
ii) not more than one matter shall be discussed on the same motion;
iii) the motion shall be restricted to a specific matter of recent occurrence;
iv) the motion shall not raise a question of privilege;
v) the motion shall not revive discussion on a matter which has been discussed in the same session;

 Amended vide Notification No. KLASU R.C. ID/1 R/2016, Bangalore, Dtd 29-11-2016.
vi) the motion shall not anticipate a matter which has been previously appointed for consideration. In determining whether a discussion is out of order on the ground of anticipation regard shall be had by the Speaker to the probability of the matter anticipated being brought before the House within a reasonable time;

vii) the motion shall not deal with any matter which is under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of India; and viii) the motion shall not raise any question which, under the Constitution or these rules can only be raised on a distinct motion by a notice given in writing to the Secretary.

Motion for discussion on matters before Tribunals, Commissions, etc.,:-

63. No motion which seeks to raise discussion on a matter pending before any statutory tribunal or statutory authority performing any judicial or quasi-judicial functions or any commission or court of enquiry appointed to enquire into, or investigate, any matter shall ordinarily be permitted to be moved;

Provided that the Speaker may in his discretion allow such matter being raised in the House as is concerned with the procedure or subject or stage of enquiry if the Speaker is satisfied that it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of such matter by the statutory tribunal, statutory authority, commission or court of enquiry.

Mode of asking for leave to move adjournment motion:-

64. (1) The Speaker, if he gives consent under Rule 60 and holds that the matter proposed to be discussed is in order, shall after the question hour and zero hour and before the list of business is entered upon, call the member concerned who shall raise in his place and ask for leave to move for the adjournment of the House;

Provided that where the Speaker has refused his consent under Rule 60 or is of opinion that the matter proposed to be discussed is not in order, he may, if he thinks it necessary, read the notice of motion and state the reasons for refusing consent or holding the motion as not being in order;

Provided further that where the Speaker is not in possession of full facts about the matter mentioned therein, he may before giving or refusing his consent, read the notice of the motion and hear from the Minister or members concerned, a brief statement of facts and then give his decision on the admissibility of the motion.

(2) If objection to leave being granted is taken, the Speaker shall request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places and if not less than twenty three members rise accordingly, the Speaker shall intimate that leave is granted. If less than twenty-three members rise, the Speaker shall inform the member that he has not the leave of the House.

Time for taking up motion:-

"65. The motion that the House do now adjourn shall ordinarily be taken up at 15:00 hours or if the Speaker, after consultation with the Leader of the House so directs at any earlier hour at which the business of the day may terminate.

Closure of debate:

66. The Speaker may, if he is satisfied that there has been adequate debate, put the question at 5 p.m. or at such other hour not being less than two hours from the time of commencement of the debate.

Question to be put at the end of debate:-

67. On a motion to adjourn for the purpose of discussing a matter of urgent public importance, the only question that may be put shall be "that the House do now adjourn".

Time limit for speeches and regulation of discussions:-

68. No speech during the debate shall, except with the permission of the Speaker, exceed fifteen minutes in duration.

Notice of raising discussion:-

69. Any member desirous of raising discussion on a matter of urgent public importance may give notice in writing to the Secretary specifying clearly and precisely the matter to be raised;

Provided that the notice shall be accompanied by an explanatory note stating reasons for raising a discussion on the matter in question;

Provided further that the notice shall be supported by signatures of at least two other members.

Speaker to decide admissibility and allotment of time:-

70. (1) If the Speaker is satisfied, after calling for such information from the member who had given notice and from the Minister as he may consider necessary, that the matter is urgent and is of sufficient importance to be raised in the House at an early date, he may admit the notice;

Provided that if an early opportunity is otherwise available for the discussion of the matter, the Speaker may refuse to admit the notice.

(2) The Speaker may allot two sittings in a week on which such matters may be taken up for discussion and allow such time for discussion not exceeding one hour at or before the end of the sitting, as he may consider appropriate in the circumstances.
No formal motion:-

71. There shall be no formal motion before the House nor voting. The member who has given notice may make a short statement and the Minister shall reply shortly. Any member who has previously intimated to the Speaker may be permitted to take part in the discussion.

Time limit for Speeches:-

72. The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for the speeches.
CHAPTER - X

CALLING ATTENTION TO MATTERS OF URGENT
PUBLIC IMPORTANCE

PROCEDURE REGARDING CALLING ATTENTION

73. (1) A member may, with the previous permission of the Speaker, call the attention of a Minister to any matter of urgent public importance and the Minister may make a brief statement or ask for time to make a statement at a later hour or date;

Provided that no member shall give more than two such notices for any one sitting.

(2) There shall be no debate on such statement at the time it is made but each member in whose name the item stands in the list of business may, with the permission of the Speaker, may ask a clarification;

(3) Not more than two such matters shall be raised at the same sitting:

Provided that names of not more than five members shall be shown in the list of business.

Explanations: - (i) Where a notice is signed by more than one member, it shall be deemed to have been given by the first signatory only.

(ii) Notices for a sitting received one hour before the commencement of the sitting on that day and a ballot shall be held to determine the relative priority of each such notice on the same subject. Notices received after one hour shall be deemed to have been given for the next sitting;

Provided that the second matter shall not be raised by the same members who have raised the first matter and it shall be raised at or immediately before the end of the sitting as the Speaker may fix;

(iii) in the event of more than one matter being presented for the same day, priority shall be given to the matter which is in the opinion of the Speaker, more urgent and important.

(iv) All the notices which have not been taken up during the week for which they have been given shall lapse at the end of the week, unless the Speaker has admitted any of them for a subsequent sitting;

Provided that a notice referred for facts to a Minister, shall not lapse till it is finally disposed of by the Speaker.
CHAPTER XI
LEGISLATION
I - BILLS ORIGINATING IN THE HOUSE
INTRODUCTION AND PUBLICATION OF BILLS

Publication before introduction:-

74. The Speaker may, on request being made to him, order the publication of any Bill (together with Statement of Objects and Reasons, the memorandum regarding delegation of legislative power and the financial memorandum accompanying it) in the gazette, although no motion has been made for leave to introduce the Bill. In that case, it shall not be necessary to move for leave to introduce the Bill, and if, the Bill is afterwards introduced, it shall not be necessary to publish it again.

79. A Bill involving proposals for the delegation of legislative power shall further to be accompanied by a memorandum explaining such proposals and drawing attention to their scope and stating also whether they are of normal or exceptional character.

Statement in connection with Ordinances:-

80. (1) Whenever a Bill seeking to replace an Ordinance with or without modification is introduced in the House, there shall be placed before the House along with the Bill, a statement explaining the circumstances which had necessitated immediate legislation by Ordinance.

(2) Whenever an Ordinance, which embodies wholly or partly or with modification, the provision of a Bill pending before the House, is promulgated, a statement, explaining the circumstances which necessitated immediate legislation by Ordinance shall be laid on the Table at the commencement of the session following the promulgation of the Ordinance.

Motion for leave to introduce, Introduction:-

81. (1) On the motion for leave to introduce a Bill, the mover may make a brief explanatory statement, if the motion is opposed, the Speaker may permit a brief explanatory statement from the member who opposes and a brief reply from the mover, and shall then, without further debate, put the question thereon;

Provided that where a motion is opposed on the ground that the Bill initiates legislation outside the legislative competence of the House, the Speaker may permit a full discussion thereon.

(2) If leave to introduce the Bill is granted, the mover shall forthwith introduce the Bill.

(3) When a Bill has been published under Rule 74 it shall not be necessary to move for leave to introduce the Bill and the Bill may be introduced by the member-in-charge on any subsequent day available for business of that kind.

Publication after introduction:-

82. As soon as may be after a Bill has been introduced the Bill, unless it has already been published, shall be published in the Gazette.

Translation of Bills:-

83. After a Bill has been introduced or in the case of a Bill published under Rule 74 after such Bill has been published, the Bill and the statement of Objects and Reasons shall be translated into Kannada and such translations shall be published in the Gazette.
Motions after introduction of Bills:-

Motions after introduction:-

64. When a Bill is introduced or on some subsequent occasion, the member in-charge may make one of the following motions in regard to his Bill, namely:-

(i) that it be taken into consideration; or
(ii) that it be referred to a Select Committee of the House; or
(iii) that it be referred to a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Council; or
(iv) that it be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon;

Provided that no such motion as is referred to in-clause (iii) shall be made with reference to a Bill making provision for any of the matters specified in sub-clause (a) to (f) of clause (1) of Article 198 of the Constitution;

Provided further that no such motion shall be made until after copies of the Bill have been made available for the use of members, and that any member may object to any such motion being made unless copies of the Bill have been so made available for two days before the day on which the motion is made and such objection shall prevail, unless the Speaker allows the motion to be made.

Discussion on principle of Bill:-

65. (1) On a motion referred to in Rule 82 being made, the principle of the Bill and its provisions may be discussed, generally, but the details of the Bill shall not be discussed further than is necessary to explain its principles.

(2) At this stage no amendments to the Bill may be moved, but-

(a) if the member-in-charge moves that the Bill be taken into consideration any member may move as an amendment that the Bill referred to a Select Committee of the House, or a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Council or be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon by a date to be specified in the motion.

(b) If the member-in-charge moves that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee of the House, or a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Council, any member may move as an amendment that the Bill be referred to a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Council or a Select Committee as the case may be, or that the Bill be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon by a date to be specified in the motion.

(3) Where a motion that a Bill be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon is carried and the Bill is circulated in accordance with that direction and opinions are received thereon, the member-in-charge, if he wishes to proceed with the Bill thereafter, shall move that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee of the House or a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Council, unless the Speaker allows a motion to be made that the Bill be taken into consideration;

Provided that if an amendment or a motion for appointment of a Select Committee or a Joint Select Committee has been moved under this Rule, any member may move that the House give instructions to the Select Committee or to the Joint Select Committee to which the Bill is proposed to be referred to make some particular or additional provision in the Bill and if necessary or convenient, to consider and report or amendments which may be proposed to the original Act which the Bill seeks to amend;

Provided further that no amendment or a motion for appointment of a Joint Select Committee under this Rule shall be moved with reference to a Bill making provision for any of the matters specified in Sub-clauses (a) to (f) of clause (1) of Article 99 of the Constitution.

Persons by whom motion in respect of Bills may be made:-

86. No motion that a Bill be taken into consideration or be passed shall be made by any member other than the member-in-charge of the Bill, and no motion that a Bill be circulated or re-circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon shall be made by any member other than the member-in-charge except by way of amendment to a motion made by the member-in-charge.

Provided that if the member-in-charge of a Bill is unable, for reasons which the Speaker considers adequate to move the next motion in regard to his Bill at any subsequent stage after introduction, he may authorise another member to move that particular motion with the approval of the Speaker.

Explanation:- Notwithstanding the provisions contained in the proviso the member who introduced the Bill shall continue to be the member-in-charge.

Procedure after presentation of report of a Select or Joint Select Committee:-

Motion that may be moved after presentation of the report of a Select or Joint Select Committee:-

87. (1) After the presentation of the final report of a Select or Joint Select Committee on a Bill, the member-in-charge may move-

(a) that the Bill as reported by the Select or Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration;

Provided that any member of the House may object to its being so taken into consideration if a copy of the report has not been made available for the use of members for three days, and such objections shall prevail unless the Speaker allows the Bill to be taken into consideration; or

(b) that the Bill as reported by the Select Committee of the House or Joint Select Committee of the House, as the case may be, be re-committed to the same Select Committee or to a new Select Committee, or to the same Joint Select Committee or to a new Joint Select Committee with the concurrence of the Council either.
(i) without limitation; or
(ii) with respect to particular clauses or amendments only, or
(iii) with instructions to the Committee to make some particular or additional provision in the Bill, or
(e) that the Bill as reported by the Select Committee of the House or Joint Select Committee of the Houses, be circulated or re-circulated, as the case may be, for the purpose of eliciting opinion or further opinion thereon.

(2) If the member-in-charge moves that the Bill as reported by the Select or Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration, any member may move as an amendment that the Bill be re-committed or be circulated or re-circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion or further opinion thereon.

Scope of debate on report of Select Committee:-

68. The debate on a motion that the Bill as reported by the Select or Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration shall be confined to consideration of the report of the Select or Joint Select Committee and the matters referred to in that report or any alternative suggestions consistent with the principle of the Bill.

Amendment to clauses etc., and Consideration of Bills Submission of the Bill Clause by Clause:-

89. (1) After a motion has been agreed to by the House that a Bill be taken into consideration, the Speaker shall submit the Bill to the House clause by clause.
(2) Any member may at this stage move an amendment to the Bill.
(3) The Speaker shall have powers to select the new clauses or amendments to be proposed, and may, if he thinks fit, call upon any member who has given notice of an amendment to give such explanation of the object of the amendment as may enable him to form a judgement upon it.
(4) Amendments shall be considered in the order of the clauses to which they relate.

Provided that with the permission of the Speaker, amendments may be taken in any other order.

(5) The Speaker shall call the number of each clause separately and when the amendment relating to it has been dealt with, shall put the question "that this clause (or, that this clause as amended, as the case may be) do stand part of the Bill."

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) and (6) of this rule, the Speaker may, in the case of uncontested clauses, put the question on group of clauses and not on each clause separately.

(7) When any clause is under consideration, the discussion shall be confined to that clause and other clauses of the Bill may not be discussed, except with the permission of the Speaker.

(8) The Schedules, if any, shall be submitted to the House for its consideration and shall be dealt with in the same manner as the clauses are dealt with.

(9) The title and the preamble of the Bill shall be put to the House after all clauses of the Bill have been dealt with.

Notice of amendments:-

90. (1) If notice of an amendment to a clause or Schedule of the Bill has not been given one clear day before the day on which the Bill is to be considered, any member may object to the moving of the amendment and such objection shall prevail unless the Speaker allows the amendment to be moved;

Provided that in the case of a Government bill, and amendment of which notice has been received from the member-in-charge, shall not lapse by reason of the fact that the member-in-charge has ceased to be a minister or a member and such amendment shall be printed in the name of the new member-in-charge of the Bill.
(2) The Secretary shall, if time permits, cause every notice of a proposed amendment to be printed and a copy thereof to be made available for the use of every member.

Sanction to be annexed to notice of amendments:-

91. If any member desires to move an amendment which under the Constitution cannot be moved without previous sanction or recommendation, he shall annex to the notice of the proposed amendment a copy of such sanction or recommendation and the notice shall not be valid until this requirement is complied with.

Conditions of admissibility of amendments:-

92. The following conditions shall govern the admissibility of amendments to clauses or Schedules of a Bill:-

(a) An amendment shall be within the scope of the Bill and relevant to the subject matter of the clause to which it relates.

(b) An amendment shall not be inconsistent with any previous decision of the House on the same question.

(c) An amendment shall not be such as to make the clause which it proposes to amend unintelligible or un-grammatical.

(d) If an amendment refers to, or is not intelligible without a subsequent amendment or schedule, notice of the subsequent amendment or schedule shall be given before the first amendment so moved so as to make the series of amendments intelligible as a whole.

(e) The Speaker shall determine the place in which an amendment shall be moved.

(f) The Speaker may refuse to propose an amendment which is, in his opinion, frivolous or meaningless.

(g) An amendment may be moved to an amendment which has already been proposed by the Speaker.

Power of Speaker to select new clauses or amendments:-

93. The Speaker shall have power to select the new clauses or amendments to be proposed, and may if he thinks fit, call upon any member who has given notice of an amendment to give such explanation of the object of the amendment as may enable him to form a judgement upon it.

Arrangement of Amendments:

54. Amendments of which notice has been given, shall, as far as practicable be arranged in the list of amendments, issued from time to time, in the order in which they may be called. In arranging amendments raising the same question at the same point of a clause, precedence may be given to an amendment to be moved by the member-in-charge of the Bill. Subject as aforesaid, amendments may be arranged in the order in which notices thereof are received.

Order of Amendments:

95. (1) Amendments shall ordinarily be considered in the order of the clauses of the Bill to which they respectively relate; and in respect of any such clause a motion shall be deemed to have been made;

"That this clause do stand part of the Bill"

(2) The Speaker may, if he thinks fit put as one question similar amendments to a clause, provided that if a member requests that any amendment be put separately, the Speaker shall put that amendment separately.

Withdrawal of Amendments:

96. An Amendment moved may, by leave of the House, but not otherwise, be withdrawn on the request of the member moving it. If an amendment has been proposed to an amendment, the original amendment shall not be withdrawn until the amendment proposed to it has been disposed of.

Postponement of clause:

97. The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, postpone the consideration of a clause.
Schedule:-

98. The consideration of the Schedule or Schedules, if any, shall follow the consideration of clauses, Schedules shall be put from the Chair, and may be amended, in the same manner as clauses and the consideration of new schedules shall follow the consideration of the original schedules. The question shall then be put,

"That this Schedule (or, that this schedule as amended, as the case may be) stand part of the Bill"

Provided that the Speaker may allow the schedule or schedules, if any, being considered before the clauses as disposed of or along with a clause or otherwise as he may think fit.

Voting on group of clauses and schedules:-

99. The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, put as one question clauses and/or schedules, and clauses and/or schedules as amended, as the case may be, together to the vote of the House.

Provided that if a member requests that any clause or schedule as amended, as the case may be, be put separately, the Speaker, shall put that clause or schedule, or clause or schedule as amended as the case may be separately.

Clause one, preamble and title of the Bill:-

100. Clause one, the Preamble, if any and the Title of a Bill shall stand postponed until the other clauses and schedules (including new clauses and new schedules) have been disposed of and the Speaker shall then put the question;

"That Clause one, or the preamble or the Title (or that clause one Preamble or title as amended as the case may be), do stand part of the Bill."
Passing, authentication and reconsideration of Bills:-

Passing of a Bill:-

101. (1) When a motion that a Bill be taken into consideration has been carried and no amendment of the Bill is made, the member-in-charge may at once move that the Bill be passed.

(2) If any amendment of the Bill is made, any member may object to any motion being made on the same day that the Bill be passed and such objection shall prevail unless the Speaker allows the motion to be made.

(3) Where the objection prevails, a motion that the Bill be passed may be brought forward on any future day.

(4) To such a motion no amendment may be moved which is not either formal, verbal or consequential upon an amendment made after the Bill was taken into consideration.

Scope of debate on the motion to pass:-

102. The discussion on a motion on the Bill, as amended as the case may be, be passed, shall be confined to the submission of arguments either in support of the Bill or for the rejection of the Bill. In making his speech a member shall not refer to the details of the Bill further than is necessary for the purpose of his arguments which shall be of a general character.

Correction of patent errors:-

103. Where a Bill is passed by the House, the Speaker shall have power to correct patent errors and make such other changes in the Bill as are consequential upon the amendments accepted by the House.

Transmission of Bills, passed by the Assembly to Council:-

104. When a Bill is passed by the House it shall be transmitted to the Council for concurrence with a message to that effect.

The Secretary shall certify, on top of the first page of the Bill so transmitted to the Council in the following form:
"This Bill has been passed by the Legislative Assembly on ............ 20.
Dated ............... 20 Secretary"

Provided that if it is a Money Bill within the meaning of Article 199 of the Constitution, the certificate by the Speaker shall be endorsed at the end of the Bill in the following form:

"I hereby certify that this Bill is a Money Bill within the meaning of Article 199 of the Constitution of India.
Dated ............... Speaker."

Reconsideration of a Bill Passed by the House:-

105. When a Bill passed by both Houses of Legislature is returned by the President or by the Governor for reconsideration of the point or points referred for consideration shall be put before the House by the Speaker, and shall be discussed and voted upon in the same manner as amendment to a Bill, or in such other way as the Speaker may consider most convenient for their consideration by the House.

Adjournment of debate on and withdrawal and removal of Bills:

Adjournment of the debate over Bill:-

106. At any stage of a Bill which is under discussion in the House a motion that the debate on the Bill be adjourned may be moved with the consent of the Speaker.

112. (1) If a motion that the amendments or recommendations be taken into consideration be carried, the Speaker shall put the amendments or recommendations to the House in such manner as he thinks most convenient for their consideration.

(2) Any member may propose further amendments to the Bill but such amendments shall be relevant or alternative to or consequential upon the amendments made in the Bill by the Council or made necessary by the delay in the passage of the Bill.

Procedure consequent on consideration of amendment:-

113. (1) If the House agrees to the amendments made by the Council, a message intimating its agreements shall be sent to the Council.

(2) If the House disagrees with the amendments made by the Council, or any of them, the Bill with a message intimating its disagreements shall be sent to the Council.

(3) If the House agrees to the amendments or any of them with further amendments or proposes further amendments in place of amendments made by the Council, the Bill as further amended with a message to the effect be sent to the Council.
Procedure if the Bill as passed for the second time by House is returned by Council with amendments:-

114. If a Bill which has been passed for the second time by the House and transmitted to the Council is returned to the House with amendments made therein by the Council, copies of the message received from the Council shall be sent to all the members and copies of the Bill as amended shall be laid on the table of the House, the member-in-charge may then, after giving three days' notice, move that the amendments made in the Bill by the Council may be taken into consideration. If the motion is carried, the Speaker shall put to the Vote of the House the amendments made by the Council in the Bill in such manner as he thinks most convenient for their consideration. If the House agrees to the amendment made in the Bill by the Council a message intimating its agreement shall be sent to the Council. If the House does not agree to the amendments made in the Bill by the Council or any of them, the Bill shall be deemed to have been passed by the House and the Council with such amendments, if any, as may have been made by the Council and agreed to by the House.

CHAPTER - XVI
RESOLUTIONS

Notice of Resolution:-
146. A member other than a Minister who wishes to move a resolution to that effect shall give at least seven clear days before the date of ballot and shall, together with notice submit the text of the resolution which he wishes to move.

Subject matter and conditions of admissibility of resolution:-
147. Subject to the provisions of these rules, a member or a Minister may move a resolution relating to a matter of general public interest.

In order that a resolution may be admissible shall satisfy the following conditions, namely:-

(i) It shall be clearly and precisely expressed and shall raise substantially one definite issue;

(ii) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations or defamatory statements;

(iii) It shall not refer to the conduct or character of persons except in their official or public capacity; and

(iv) it shall not relate to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law having jurisdiction in any part of India.

Form of resolution:-
148. A Resolution may be in the form of a declaration of opinion, or a recommendation or may be in the form such as to record either approval or disapproval by the House of an Act or policy of Government or convey a message; or commend, urge or request an action; or call attention to a matter or situation for consideration by Government; or in such other form as the Speaker may consider appropriate.
Speaker to decide admissibility of a resolution:-

149. (1) The Speaker shall decide whether a resolution or part thereof is or is not admissible under these rules and may disallow any resolution or a part thereof when in his opinion, it is an abuse of the right of moving a resolution or calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the House or is in contravention of these rules.

(2) Where the form or the subject matter of a resolution is in the opinion of the Speaker in contravention of the rules, he may amend the resolution to secure its compliance with the rules and inform the member concerned accordingly.

Raising discussion on matters before Tribunals, Commissions, etc.:-

150. No resolution which seeks to raise discussion on a matter pending before any statutory tribunal or statutory authority performing any judicial or quasi-judicial functions or any commission or court of enquiry appointed to enquire into, or investigate any matter shall ordinarily be permitted to be moved;

Provided that the Speaker may, in his discretion allow such matter being raised in the House as is concerned with the procedure or subject or stage of enquiry, if the Speaker is satisfied that it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of such matter by the statutory tribunal, statutory authority, commission or court of enquiry.

Motion of resolution:-

151. (1) A member in whose name a resolution stands on the list of business shall, except when he wishes to withdraw it, when called upon, move the resolution and commence his speech by formal motion in the terms appearing in the list of business.

(2) A member may, with the permission of the Speaker, authorise any other member, in whose name the same resolution stands lower in the list of business, to move it on his behalf and the member so authorised may move it accordingly.

(3) If a member other than a Minister who called on is absent, any other member authorised by him in writing in his behalf may, with the permission of the Speaker, move the resolution standing in his name.

Amendments:-

152. (1) After a resolution has been moved any member may, subject to the rules relating to resolutions, move an amendment to the resolution.

(2) If notice of such amendment has not been given one day previous to the day on which the resolution is moved, any member may object to his moving of the amendment and such objection shall prevail, unless the Speaker allows the amendment to be moved.

(3) The Secretary shall, if time permits, make available to members from time to time lists of amendments of which notices have been received.

Time limit for Speeches:-

153. No speech on a resolution shall, except with the permission of the Speaker, exceed fifteen minutes in duration;

Provided that the mover of a resolution, when moving the same and the Minister concerned when speaking for the first time, may speak for thirty minutes or for such longer time as the Speaker may permit.

Provided further that the discussion on the resolution shall not exceed 5 hours including the reply of the Minister.

Scope of discussion:-

154. The discussion of a resolution shall be strictly relevant to and within the scope of the resolution.
Withdrawal of resolution and amendment:-

155. (1) A member in whose name a resolution stands on the list of business may, when called upon, if he so wishes to do withdraw the resolution, and shall confine himself to a mere statement to that effect.

(2) A member who has moved a resolution or an amendment to resolution shall not withdraw the same except by leave of the House.

(3) If a resolution which has been admitted is not discussed during the session it shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

Splitting of resolution:-

156. When any resolution involving several points has been discussed, the Speaker may divide the resolution and put each or any point separately to the vote, as he may think fit.

Repetition of resolution:-

157. (1) When a resolution has been moved and voted upon no resolution or amendment raising substantially the same question shall be moved within one year from the date of moving of the earlier resolution.

(2) When a resolution has been withdrawn with the leave of the House, no resolution raising substantially the same question shall be moved during the same session.

Copy of resolution passed to be sent to the Minister:-

158. A copy of every resolution which has been passed by the House shall be forwarded to the Minister concerned.
CHAPTER - XVII
MOTIONS

Discussion on a matter of Public interest by motion:-

159. Save in so far as is otherwise provided in the Constitution or in these rules, no discussion of a matter of general public interest shall take place except on a motion made with the consent of the Speaker.

Notice of a Motion:-

160. Notice of a motion shall be given in writing addressed to the Secretary.

Conditions of admissibility of motion:-

161. In order that a motion may be admissible it shall satisfy the following conditions, namely:-

(i) it shall raise substantially one definite issue;
(ii) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations or defamatory statements;
(iii) it shall not refer to the conduct or character of persons except in their public capacity;
(iv) it shall be restricted to a matter of recent occurrence;
(v) it shall not raise a question of privilege;
(vi) it shall not revive discussion of a matter which has been discussed in the session;
(vii) it shall not anticipate discussion of a matter which is likely to be discussed in the same session;
(viii) it shall not relate to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law having jurisdiction in any part of India.

Speaker to decide admissibility of a motion:-

162. The Speaker shall decide whether a motion or a part thereof is or is not admissible under these rules and may disallow any motion or a part thereof when in his opinion it is an abuse of the right of moving a motion or calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the House or is in contravention of these rules.

Matters before tribunals, commissions, etc.,-

163. No motion which seeks to raise discussion on a matter pending before any Statutory Tribunal or Statutory Authority performing any judicial or quasi judicial functions or any Commission or Court of Enquiry appointed to enquire into, or investigate, any matter shall ordinarily be permitted to be moved;

Provided that the Speaker may, in his discretion allow such matter being raised in the House as it is concerned with the procedure or subject or stage of enquiry if the Speaker is satisfied that it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of such matter by the Statutory Tribunal, Statutory Authority, Commission or Court of Enquiry.

Allotment of Time and discussion of Motions:-

164. The Speaker may, after considering the state of business in the House and in consultation with the Leader of the House (or on the recommendation of the Business Advisory Committee) allot a day or days or part of a day for the discussion of any such motion.

Speaker to put question at the appointed time:-

165. The Speaker shall, at the appointed hours on the allotted day or the last of the allotted days, as the case may be, forthwith put every question necessary to determine the decision of the House on the original question.

Time limit for Speeches:-

166. The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for speeches.
167. (1) A motion expressing want of confidence in the Council of Ministers may be made subject to the following restrictions, namely:—

(a) leave to make the motion must be asked for after questions and before the list of business for the day is entered upon;

(b) the Member asking for leave shall, before the commencement of the sitting of that day give to the Secretary a written notice of the motion which he proposes to move.

(2) If the Speaker is of opinion that the motion is in order, he shall read the motion to the House and shall request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places and if not less than twenty-three members rise accordingly, the Speaker shall intimate that leave is granted and that the motion will be taken up the next day, or within three days thereafter as the Speaker decides. If less than twenty-three members rise, the Speaker shall inform the member that he has not the leave of the House.

(3) If leave is granted under sub-rule (2), the Speaker may, after considering the state of business in the House, allot a day or days or part of a day for the discussion of the motion.

(4) The Speaker shall, at the appointed hour on the allotted day or the last of the allotted days, as the case may be, forthwith put every question necessary to determine the decision of the House on the motion.

(5) The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for speeches.
Statement by a Minister who has resigned:

(1) A member who has resigned the office of Minister may, by the consent of the Speaker make a personal statement of explanation of his resignation.

(2) A copy of the statement shall be forwarded to the Speaker and the Leader of the House one day in advance of the day on which it is proposed to be made.

Provided that, in the absence of a written statement the points or the gist of such statement shall be conveyed to the Speaker and the Leader of the House one day in advance of the day on which it is proposed to be made.

(3) Such a statement shall be made after questions and before the list of business of the day is entered upon.

(4) There shall be no debate on such statement, after it has been made, a Minister may make a statement pertinent thereto.
CHAPTER - XIX

RESOLUTION FOR REMOVAL OF SPEAKER OR DEPUTY SPEAKER FROM OFFICE

Notice of resolution for removal of Speaker or Deputy Speaker:-

169. (1) A member wishing to give notice of a resolution under clause (c) of Article 179 of the Constitution, for the removal of the Speaker, or the Deputy Speaker shall do so in writing to the Secretary.

(2) On receipt of a notice under sub-rule (1) a motion for leave to move the resolution shall be entered in the list of business in the name of the member concerned, on a day fixed by the Speaker, provided that the day so fixed shall be any day after fourteen days from the date of the receipt of notice of the resolution.

Leave of House to take up resolution:-

170. (1) The member in whose name the motion stands on the list of business shall, except when he wishes to withdraw it, move the motion when called upon to do so, but no speech shall be permitted at this stage.

(2) The Speaker or the Deputy Speaker or the person presiding as the case may be, shall thereupon, place the motion before the House and shall request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places. If not less than forty members rise accordingly, the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker or the person presiding as the case may be, shall declare that leave has been granted and that the resolution will be taken up on such day, not being more than five days from the date on which leave is asked for, as he may appoint. If less than forty members rise, the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker or the person presiding, shall inform the member that he has not the leave of the House.

Resolution included in the list of Business on the appointed day:-

171. On the appointed day the resolution shall be included in the list of business to be taken up after the questions and before any other business for the day is entered upon.

Time limit for speeches:-

172. Except with the permission of the Speaker or the person presiding, a speech on the resolution shall not exceed fifteen minutes in duration;

Provided that the mover of the resolution when moving the same may speak for such longer time as the Speaker or the person presiding may permit.
CHAPTER - XX
PROCEDURE IN FINANCIAL MATTERS

(A) THE BUDGET

The Budget:-

173. The Annual Financial Statement or the Statement of the estimated Receipts and Expenditure of the Government in respect of each financial year (hereinafter referred to as the Budget) shall be presented to the House on such day as the Governor may direct.

Budget not to be discussed on presentation:-

174. There shall be no discussion of the Budget on the day on which it is presented to the House.

(B) DEMANDS FOR GRANTS

Demands for grants:-

175. (1) A separate demand shall ordinarily be made in respect of the grant proposed for each department of the Government, provided that the Government may in its discretion include in one demand grants proposed for two or more departments, or make a demand in respect of expenditure which cannot readily be classified under particular departments.

(2) Each demand shall contain first a statement of the total grant proposed, and then a statement of the detailed estimate under each grant divided into items.

(3) Subject to these rules the Budget shall be presented in such form as the Government may, in consultation with the Estimates Committee, settle.

Stages of the Budget Debate:-

176. The Speaker shall, in consultation with the Business Advisory Committee, fix and appoint sufficient number of days for each of these stages;

Provided that not more than ten days shall be fixed for the General discussion of the Budget and not more than twenty days shall be fixed for the voting of demands for grants.
General discussion on the Budget:-

177. (1) On a day or days to be appointed by the Speaker subsequent to the day on which the Budget is presented and for such time as the Speaker may allot for this purpose, the House shall discuss the Budget as a whole or any question of principle involved therein, but no motion shall be moved nor shall the Budget be submitted to the vote of the House.

(2) The Finance Minister shall have a general right of reply at the end of the discussion.

(3) The Speaker may, if he thinks fit prescribe a time limit for speeches.

Voting of Demand for Grants:-

178. (1) The Speaker shall, in consultation with the Leader of the House, allot so many days not being less than fifteen days, as may be compatible with the public interest for the discussion and voting of demands for grants.

(2) On the last day of the allotted days at five O’clock or at the hour fixed for the termination of the day’s meeting the Speaker shall forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of all the outstanding matters in connection with the demands for grants.

(3) Motions may be moved to reduce any demands for grant.

(4) No amendments to motions to reduce any demand for grant shall be permissible.

(5) When several motions relating to the same demand are offered they shall be discussed in the order in which the Heads to which they relate, appear in the Budget.

Cut motions:-

179. A motion may be moved to reduce the amount of a demand in any of the following ways:-

(a) “that the amount of the demand be reduced to ₹ 1” representing disapproval of the policy underlying the demand. Such a motion shall be known as “disapproval of Policy Cut.” A member giving notice of such a motion shall indicate in precise terms the particulars of the policy which he proposed to discuss. The discussion shall be confined, to the specific point or points mentioned in the notice and it shall be open to members to advocate an alternative policy.

(b) "that the amount of the demand be reduced by a specified amount" representing the economy that can be effected. Such specified amount may be either lumpsum reduction in the demand or omission or reduction of an item in the demand. The motion shall be known as "Economy Cut". The notice shall indicate briefly and precisely the particular matter on which discussion is sought to be raised and speeches shall be confined to the discussion as to how economy can be effected.

(c) "that the amount of the demand be reduced by Rs. 100" in order to ventilate a specific grievance which is within the sphere of the responsibility of the State Government. Such a motion shall be known as "Token Cut" and the discussion thereon shall be confined to the particular grievance specified in the motion.

Conditions of admissibility of cut motions:-

180. In order that a notice of motion for reduction of the amount of demand may be admissible, it shall satisfy the following conditions, namely:-

(i) it shall relate to one demand only;
(ii) it shall be clearly expressed and shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations, epithets or defamatory statements;
(iii) it shall be confined to one specific matter which shall be stated in precise terms;
(iv) it shall not reflect on the character or conduct of any person whose conduct can only be challenged on a substantive motion;
(v) it shall not make suggestions for the amendment or repeal of existing laws;
(vi) it shall not refer to a matter which is not primarily the concern of the State Government;

(vii) it shall not relate to expenditure charged on the Consolidated Fund of the State;

(viii) it shall not relate to a matter which is under adjudication by a court of law having jurisdiction in any part of India;

(ix) it shall not raise a question of privilege;

(x) it shall not revive discussion on the matter which has been discussed in the same session and on which a decision has been taken;

(xi) it shall not anticipate a matter which has been previously appointed for consideration in the same session;

(xii) it shall not ordinarily seek to raise a discussion on a matter pending before any Statutory Tribunal or Statutory Authority performing any judicial or quasi-judicial functions or any Commission or Court of Enquiry appointed to enquire into or investigate any matter;

Provided that the Speaker may in his discretion allow such matter being raised in the House as is concerned with the procedure or stage of enquiry, if the Speaker is satisfied that it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of the subject matter by the Statutory Tribunal, Statutory Authority, Commission or the Court of Enquiry; and (xiii) it shall not relate to a trivial matter.

Speaker to decide admissibility of cut motions:-

181. The Speaker shall decide whether a cut motion is or is not admissible under these rules and may disallow any cut motion when in his opinion it is an abuse of the right of moving cut motions or calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the House or is in contravention of these rules.
Notice of cut motions:
182. Any member desiring to move a motion to reduce any demand shall give notice at least four clear days before the day on which the demand is under consideration.

Presentation of the Budget in parts:
183. Nothing herein before contained shall be deemed to prevent the presentation of the Budget to the House in two or more parts and when such presentation takes place, each part shall be dealt with in accordance with these rules as if it were the Budget.

Vote on account:
184. (1) A motion for vote on account shall state the total sum required and the various amount needed for each Department or item of expenditure which compose that sum shall be stated in a schedule appended to the motion.

(2) Amendments may be moved for such reduction of the whole grant or for the reduction or omission of the items whereof the grant is composed.

(3) Discussion of a general character shall be allowed on the motion or any amendments moved thereto but the details of the grant shall not be discussed further than is necessary to develop the general points.

(4) In other respects, a motion for vote on account shall be dealt with in the same way as if it were a demand for grant.

Supplementary, additional, excess and exceptional grant and votes of credit:
185. Supplementary, additional, excess and exceptional grants and votes of credit shall be regulated by the same procedure as is applicable in the case of demands for grants subject to such adopting, whether by way of modification, addition or omission as the Speaker may deem to be necessary or expedient.
Scope of discussion on Supplementary grants:

186. The debate on the Supplementary grants shall be confined to the items constituting the same and no discussion may be raised on the original grants nor policy underlying them save in so far as it may be necessary to explain or illustrate the particular item under discussion.

Token grant:

187. What funds to meet proposed expenditure on a new service can be made available by re-appropriation a demand for the grant of a token sum may be submitted to the vote of the House and, if the House assents to the demand, funds may be so made available.

(C) APPROPRIATION BILL

Appropriation Bill:

188. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution, the procedure in regard to an Appropriation Bill shall be the same as for Bills generally with such modifications as the Speaker may consider necessary.

(2) At any time after the introduction in the House of an Appropriation Bill, the Speaker may allot a day or days, jointly or severally, for the completion of all or any of the stages involved in the passage of the Bill by the House, and when such allotment has been made by the Speaker shall at five O'clock or at the hour fixed for the termination of the day's meeting on the allotted day or, the last of the allotted days, as the case may be forthwith put every question necessary to dispose of all the outstanding matters in connection with the stage or stages for which the day or days have been allotted.

(3) The Speaker may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for speeches at all or any of the stages for which a day or days have been allotted under the preceding sub-rule.

(4) The debate on an Appropriation Bill shall be restricted to matters of public importance or administrative policy implied in the grants covered by the Bill which have not already been raised while the relevant demands for grants were under consideration.
(5) The Speaker may in order to avoid repetition of debate require members desiring to take part in discussion on an Appropriation Bill to give advance intimation of the specific points they intend to raise, and he may withhold permission for raising such of the points as in the opinion appear to be repetitions of the matters discussed on a demand for grant or as may not be of sufficient public importance.

(6) If an Appropriation Bill is in pursuance of a supplementary grant in respect of an existing service the discussion shall be confined to the items constituting the same and no discussion shall be raised on the original grant nor the policy underlying it save in so far as it may be necessary to explain or illustrate a particular item under discussion.

Business that can be taken up on a day allotted for financial business:-

190. Notwithstanding that a day has been allotted for other business under Rule 177, 178 or 185 a motion or motions for leave to introduce a Bill or Bills may be made and a Bill or Bills may be introduced on such day before the House enters on the business for which the day has been allotted.

Time limit for disposal of Financial business:-

190. In addition to the powers exerçisable by the Speaker under these rules, he may exercise all powers necessary for the purpose of the timely completion of all Financial business and in particularity allot time for the disposal of various kinds of such business and where the time is so allotted, he shall, at the appointed hour, put every question necessary to dispose of all the outstanding matters in connection with the stage or stages for which time has been allotted.

Explanation: Financial business includes any business which the Speaker holds as coming within that category under the Constitution.
CHAPTER - XXI
PRIVILEGE

(a) Question of Privilege

Questions of Privilege:-

191. A member may, with the consent of the Speaker, raise a question involving a breach of privilege either of a member, or of the House or of a Committee thereof.

Notice of question of privilege:-

192. A member wishing to raise a question of privilege shall give notice in writing to the Secretary before the commencement of the sitting on the day the question is proposed to be raised. If the question raised is based on a document, the notice shall be accompanied by the document.

Conditions of admissibility of question of privilege:-

193. The right to raise a question of privilege shall be governed by the following conditions, namely-

(i) not more than one question shall be raised at the same sitting;

(ii) the question shall be restricted to a specific matter of recent occurrence;

(iii) the matter requires the intervention of the House.

Mode of raising a question of privilege:-

194. (1) The Speaker, if he gives consent under Rule 191 and holds that matter proposed to be discussed is in order, shall, after the questions and before the list of business is entered upon, call the member concerned, who shall rise in his place and while asking for leave to raise the question of privilege make a short statement relevant thereto:

Provided that where the Speaker has refused his consent under Rule 191 or is of opinion that the matter proposed to be discussed is not in order, he may, if he thinks it necessary, read the notice of question of privilege and state that he refuses consent or holds that the notice of question of privilege is not in order.

Provided further that the Speaker may, if he is satisfied about the urgency of the matter, allow a question of privilege to be raised at any time during the course of a sitting after the disposal of questions.

(2) If objection to leave being granted is taken, the Speaker shall request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places and if not less than ten members rise accordingly, the Speaker shall intimate that leave is granted. If less than ten members rise the Speaker shall inform the members that he has not the leave of the House.

Consideration by the House of reference to the Committee of Privileges of question of privilege to which leave is granted:-

195. If leave under Rule 194 is granted, the House may consider the question and come to a decision or refer it to a Committee of Privileges on a motion made either by the member who has raised the question of privilege or by any other member.

239. (1) A Committee which is unable to complete its work before expiration of the term or before the dissolution of the House may report to the House that the Committee has not been able to complete its work. Any preliminary report, memorandum that the Committee may have prepared or any evidence that the Committee may have taken shall be made available to the new Committee.

(2) If the House is unable to consider the report of a Committee presented to it by reason of the dissolution of the House, the report shall be considered by the next House as if it were a report presented to it by one of its committees.

(b) Business Advisory Committee

Constitution of the Committee:-

240. A Business Advisory Committee shall be constituted at the commencement of the House or from time to time and shall consist of the Speaker, who shall be the Chairman of the Committee and ten other members, who shall be nominated by the Speaker.

Functions of the Committee:-

241. (1) It shall be the function of the Committee to recommend the time that should be allocated for the discussion of the stage or stages of such Government Bills and other business as the Speaker, in consultation with the Leader of the House, may direct for being referred to the Committee.

(2) The Committee shall have the power to indicate in the proposed time-table the different hours at which the various stages of the Bill or other business shall be completed.

(3) The Committee shall have such other functions as may be assigned to it by the Speaker from time to time.

Explanation:- The expression "other business" referred to in this rule and rules 244, 245 and 234 means business other than private members' bills under rule 15 and private members' resolution under rule 146 and includes discussion of reports under rule 234.

Report of the Committee:

242. The recommendations of the Committee shall be presented to the House in the form of a report.

Motion moved in House on Report:

243. At any time after the report has been presented to the House, a motion may be moved "that the House agrees or agrees with amendments or disagrees with the report."

Provided that an amendment may be moved that the report be referred back to the Committee either without limitation or with reference to any particular matter;

Provided further that not more than half-an-hour shall be allotted for the discussion of the motion, and no member shall speak for more than five minutes on such motion.

Allocation of Time Order:

244. The allocation of time in respect of Bills and other business as approved by the House shall take effect as if it were an order of the House.

Disposal of outstanding matters at the appointed hour:

245. At the appointed hour, in accordance with the Allocation of Time Order for the completion of a particular stage of a Bill or other business, the Speaker shall forthwith but every question necessary to dispose of all the outstanding matters in connection with that stage of the Bill or other business.

Variation in the Allocation of Time Order:

246. No variation in the Allocation of Time Order shall be made except on a motion made, with the consent of the Speaker and accepted by the House.

Provided that the Speaker may, after taking the sense of the House, increase the time, not exceeding the hour, without any motion being moved.
(c) Select Committees on Bills

Composition of Select Committee:-

247. (1) The member-in-charge of the Bill, the Minister for Law and the member-in-charge of the Department concerned shall be members of every Select Committee, and it shall not be necessary to include their names in any motion for appointment of such a committee.

(2) The other members of the Committee shall be appointed by the House when a motion that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee is made under Rule 65.

Non-members may be present at meetings of the Committee:-

248. Members who are not members of the Select Committee may be present during the deliberations of the Committee but shall not address the committee nor sit in the body of the Committee.

Provided that Minister may with the permission of the Chairman address the Committee of which he may not be a member.

Meetings of Select Committee:-

249. The first meeting of a Select Committee shall be held on such day and at such hour as the Chairman may fix. Subsequent dates for meetings of the Committee will be fixed by the Committee itself.

Provided that if the Chairman is not readily available the Secretary may in consultation with the Minister concerned with the Bill, fix the date and time of the first meeting.

Provided further that where the Committee has not fixed a date for the next meeting, the Secretary may fix the date for the meeting in consultation with the Chairman,
Notice of Amendments and Procedure generally in Select Committee:-

250. (1) If a notice of a proposed amendment has not been given before the day on which the Bill is taken up by the Select Committee, any member may object to the moving of the amendment and such objection shall prevail unless the Chairman allows the amendment to be moved.

(2) In other respects, the procedure in a Select Committee shall, as far as practicable, be the same as is followed in the House during the consideration stage of a Bill, with such adaptations whether by way of modification, addition or omission, as the Speaker may consider necessary or convenient.

Notice of Amendments by members other than members of Select Committee:-

251. When a Bill has been referred to a Select Committee any notice given by a member of any amendment to clause in the Bill shall stand referred to the Committee provided that where notice of amendment is received from a member who is not a member of the Select Committee such amendment shall not be taken up by the Committee unless moved by a member of the Committee.

Power to hear expert evidence:-

252. A Select Committee may hear expert evidence and representatives of special interest affected by the measures before them.

Report of Committee:-

253. (1) As soon as may be after a Bill has been referred to a Select Committee, the Select Committee shall meet from time to time in accordance with Rule 249 to consider the Bill and shall make a report thereon within the time fixed by the House.

Provided that where the House has not fixed any time for the presentation of the report, the report shall be presented before the expiry of three months from the date on which the House adopted the motion for the reference of the Bill to the Select Committee or if a session of the House is not held within three months, at the next session.

Provided further that the House may at any time on a motion being made, direct that the time for the presentation of the report by the Select Committee be extended to date specified on the motion.

(2) The Select Committee shall in its report state whether the publication of the Bill directed by these rules has taken place, and the date on which the publication has taken place.

(3) Where a Bill has been altered, the Select Committee may, if it thinks fit, include in its report a recommendation to the member in charge of the Bill that this next motion should be a motion for circulation, or where the Bill has already been circulated for re-circulation.

Minute of dissent:-

(4) If any member of a Select Committee desires to record a minute of dissent on any matters, he shall sign the report stating that he does so subject to his minute of dissent, and shall at the same time hand in his minute.

Provided that a member, if he so wishes, may hand in a complete minority report of his own or supported by such other members as are in agreement with him.

(5) A minute of dissent shall be couched in temperate and decorous language and shall not refer to any discussion in the Select Committee nor cast aspersion on the Committee.

(6) If in the opinion of the Speaker a minute of dissent contains words, phrases or expressions, which are unparliamentary or otherwise inappropriate, he may order such words, phrases or expressions to be expunged from the minute of dissent.

Printing and Publication of reports-

254. The Secretary shall cause every report of a Select Committee to be printed, and a copy of the report shall be made available for the use of every member of the House. The report, and the Bill as reported by the Select Committee shall be published in the Gazette.

(D) JOINT SELECT COMMITTEES

CHAPTER XXV
GENERAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

Notices

Notices by members:

307. (1) Every notice required by these rules shall be given in writing addressed to the Secretary and signed by the member giving notice, and shall be left at the Notice Office which shall be kept open for this purpose between the hours to be notified from time to time every day except Sunday or a public holiday.

(2) Notices left or delivered by post after the hours notified under sub-rule (1) shall be treated as given on the next open day.

(3) Notice shall be given in such form and manner as the Speaker may determine.

Circulation of notice and papers to members:

308. (1) The Secretary shall make every effort to circulate to each member a copy of every notice or other paper which is required, by these rules, to be made available for the use of members.

(2) A notice or other paper shall be deemed to have been made available for the use of every member if a copy thereof is deposited in such manner and in such place as the Speaker may, from time to time, direct.

Speaker to amend notice of questions and motions, etc.:

309. If in the opinion of the Speaker, any notice contains words, phrases or expressions which are argumentative, unparliamentary, ironical, irrelevant, verbose or otherwise inappropriate, he may, in his discretion, amend such notice before it is circulated.
MOTIONS

Repetition of Motion:-
310. A motion shall not raise a question substantially identical with one on which the House has given a decision in the same session.

Disallowance or Amendment by Speaker:-
311. (1) The Speaker may amend or disallow a motion which in his opinion does not comply with the rules.

(2) The Speaker may disallow any motion or part of a motion on the ground that it relates to a matter which is not primarily the concern of the State Government.

(3) A motion of question which has not been admitted by the Speaker shall not be entered in the list of business or printed in the official report of proceedings.

Motions not to be published until admitted:-
312. No motions shall be published before it has been admitted by the Speaker.

Moving of Motions:-
313. (1) A member who has given notice of a motion shall when called on, either

(a) state that he does not wish to move the motion, or

(b) move the motion, in which case he shall commence his speech by a formal motion in the terms appearing on the list of business;

Provided that with the permission of the Speaker, he may make a minor or verbal alteration in the terms of the motion.

(2) If the member when called on is absent, any other member authorised by him in writing in this behalf may, with the permission of the Speaker, move the motion standing in his name. Such permission shall not be granted in the case of a statutory motion or motions relating to Bills, amendments to Bills, or amendments to these rules, or motions of which notice is given under Rule 178, if no member has been so authorised or such permission is not granted the motion, other than a motion relating to Bill to which the provisions of rule apply shall lapse.

Withdrawal of Motion:-

314. (1) A member who has made a motion may withdraw the same by leave of the House.

(2) The leave shall be signified not upon question but the Speaker taking the pleasure of the House. The Speaker shall ask, "Is it the pleasure that the motion be withdrawn?" If no one dissents the Speaker shall say: "The motion is by leave withdrawn." But if any dissentient voice be heard or a member rises to continue the debate, the Speaker shall forthwith put the motion;

Provided that if an amendment has been proposed to a motion, the original motion shall not be withdrawn until the amendment has been disposed of.

Proposing the question:-

315. After a motion has been made, the Speaker shall propose the question by reading the motion for the consideration of the House.

Adjournment of debate on motion:-

316. At any time after a motion has been made, a member may move that the debate on the motion be adjourned.

Dilatory motion in abuse of the rules of the House:-

317. (1) If the Speaker is of opinion that a motion for the adjournment of a debate is an abuse of the rules of the House, he may either forthwith put the question thereon from the Chair or decline to propose the question.
(2) If the Speaker is of opinion that a motion for re-circulation of a Bill to elicit further opinion thereon is in the nature of a dilatory motion in abuse of the rules of the House in as much as the original circulation was adequate or comprehensive or that no circumstance has arisen since the previous circulation to warrant the re-circulation of the Bill, he may forthwith put the question thereon from the Chair or decline to propose the question.

(3) If the Speaker is of opinion that a motion for recomittal of a Bill to a Select Committee of the House or to a Joint Select Committee or a circulation or re-circulation of the Bill after Select Committee of the House or the Joint Select Committee may report thereon, is in the nature of a dilatory motion in abuse of the rules of the House in as much as the Select Committee of the House or the Joint Select Committee as the case may be, has dealt with the Bill in a proper manner or that no unforeseen or new circumstance has arisen since the Bill emerged from such Committee, he may forthwith put the question thereon from the Chair or decline to propose the question.

Motion that the policy or situation or statement or any other matter be taken into consideration:

318. A motion that the policy or situation or statement or any other matter be taken into consideration shall not be put to the vote of the House, but the House shall proceed to discuss such matter immediately after the mover has concluded his speech and no further question shall be put at the conclusion of the debate at the appointed hour unless a member moves a substantive motion in appropriate terms to be approved by the Speaker and the vote of the House shall be taken on such motion.

Anticipating discussion:

319. No member shall anticipate the discussion of any subject of which notice has been given provided that in determining whether a discussion is out of order on the ground of anticipation, regard shall be had by the Speaker to the probability of the matter anticipated being brought before the House within a reasonable time.

AMENDMENTS

Scope of Amendments:

320. (1) An amendment shall be relevant to and within the scope of the motion to which it is proposed.

(2) An amendment shall not be moved which has merely the effect of a negative vote.

(3) An amendment on a question shall not be inconsistent with a previous decision on the same question.

Notice of Amendments:

321. Notice of an amendment to a motion shall be given one day before the day on which the motion is to be considered unless the Speaker allows the amendment to be moved without such notice.

Selection of Amendments:

322. The Speaker shall have power to select the amendments to be proposed, in respect of any motion, and may if he thinks fit, call upon any member who has given notice of an amendment to give such explanation of the object of the amendment as may enable him to form a judgement upon it.

Putting of Amendments:

323. The Speaker may put amendments in such order as he may think fit;

Provided that the Speaker may refuse to put an amendment which in his opinion is frivolous.

DIVISION

Division:-

346. (1) On the conclusion of a debate, the Speaker shall put the question and invite those who are in favour of the motion to say "Aye" and those against motion to say "No."

(2) The Speaker shall then say "I think the Ayes (or the NOes as the case may be) have it. If the opinion of the Speaker as to the decision of a question is not challenged, he shall say twice:
"The Ayes (or the Noes, as the case may be) have it" and the question before the House shall be determined accordingly.

(5) If the opinion of the Speaker as to the decision of a question is challenged, he shall arrange to have division bells rung for two minutes.

(6) After the lapse of two minutes he shall have the door closed and shall put the question a second time and invite those who are in favour of the motion to say "Aye" and those against the motion to say "No."

(5) If the opinion of the Speaker as to the decision of the question is again challenged, shall ask the members who are for "Aye" and those who are for "No" respectively to rise in their places and on a count being taken declare the determination of the House. In such a case, the names of the voters shall not be recorded.

(6) If the Speaker does not adopt the course provided for in sub-rule (3) he shall order a division to be taken in such other manner as he may determine.

WITHDRAWAL AND SUSPENSION OF MEMBERS

Withdrawal of Members:

347. The Speaker may, direct any member whose conduct is, in his opinion, gross, disorderly to withdraw immediately from the House, and any member so ordered to withdraw shall do so forthwith and shall absent himself during the remainder of the day’s sitting.

Suspension of Member:

348. (1) The Speaker may, if he deems it necessary, name a member who disregards the authority of the Chair or abuses the rules of the House by persistently and wilfully obstructing the business thereof.

(2) If a member is so named by the Speaker, he shall forthwith put the question that the member (naming him) be suspended from the service of the House during the remainder of the session or such part thereof as the Speaker may specify in the question;

Provided that the House may, at any time on a motion being made, resolve that such suspension be terminated.

(3) A member suspended under this rule shall forthwith withdraw from the precincts of the House.

SUSPENSION OF SITTING

Power of Speaker to Adjourn the House or suspend sitting:-

349. In the case of grave disorder arising in the House, the Speaker may, if he thinks it necessary to do so, adjourn the House or suspend any sitting for a time to be named by him.

SCHEDULE - 1

Ballot Procedure for determining relative precedence of Private Members' Bills and Resolutions.

(Rules 33 and 146)

1. A member shall give notice of his intention for leave to introduce a Bill or move a resolution seven clear days before the day set apart for the class of Private Members business, on which he wants the motion to be taken up.

2. A member give notice or more than one Bill or of more than one resolution shall number his Bills or resolutions in the order in which he desires to introduce or move them, provided that he may alter such order at any time within one hour after ballot.

3. If a member fails to intimate to the Secretary of the House the order of priority that he assigns to his Bills or resolutions, they will be given an order according to the following rules:

   (a) Bills carried over from the previous session will have priority over other Bills.

   (b) New Bills or Resolutions will be given in the order when they appear in the notice given of them by the member. If more than one notice is given by a member, the Bills or Resolutions appearing in an earlier notice will have priority over a later notice.

4. The Secretary will keep separate numbered lists for Bills and for resolutions. On each list the name of each member, who has given notice of a Bill or Resolution, as the case may be will be entered once.

5. There shall be separate ballots for Bills and resolutions.

6. A ballot of names of members desiring to have a resolution shall be held in accordance with orders made by the Speaker on such day as the Speaker may direct at which any member who wishes to attend may do so.
7. Papers with numbers corresponding to these against which entries have been made on the numbered list will be placed in a box.

8. A clerk will take out at hazard from the box one of the papers and the Secretary will call out from the numbered list the corresponding name which will then be entered on a priority list. The procedure will be carried cut till all the numbers have been drawn.

9. Priority on the list will entitle the member to priority in moving that resolution or Bill to which he himself has given priority under clause 2 provided that if a resolution to which priority is given under clause 2 is disallowed the next resolution standing in the member's name may be moved in its place.

10. Members will have the same priority as regards the Bills or resolutions to which they have given second place under clause 2, as they have on respect of those to which they have given the first place.

11. The Speaker may, from time to time, make such variations in the procedure as he may consider necessary or convenient.
