He has cancelled all his appointments since Sunday, after attending a Cabinet meeting and a digital address during which he announced that Delhi hospitals will be reserved only for the residents of the national capital.

"He has been suffering from a mild fever and sore throat since Sunday afternoon. As advised by doctors, the chief minister will undergo Covid-19 test on Tuesday morning," officials said.

Kejriwal has been holding most of his meetings via video conferencing for the past two months.

Meanwhile, Director General of government's media arm Press Information Bureau KS Dhatwalia has been admitted to AIIMS here with "Covid-19 like" symptoms.
