The Legislative Assembly Secretariat has announced that all meetings of the standing committees of the legislature have been postponed indefinitely in the light of COVID-19 in the State. Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri has directed all standing committee meetings to be postponed till further orders. A notification also said that earlier the committee meetings had been allowed with proper precautions such as maintaining social distance.

Incidentally, nearly half a dozen legislators have tested positive, including the recent case of Tourism Minister C.T. Ravi.
