K'taka gets Rs 395 cr under SDRF

BENGALURU, DHNS: The Centre on Friday gave Karnataka Rs 395.5 crore under State Disaster Response Fund (SDRF) to take up relief and rehabilitation in flood-hit areas. "We had requested Prime Minister Narendra Modi to immediately release money for the losses caused by the floods. We're happy that the Centre heeded to the request and released Rs 395.5 crore under SDRF as an advance," Revenue Minister R Ashoka said in a tweet. The total share in Karnataka's SDRF for 2020-21 is Rs 791 crore of which Centre had already released the first installment of Rs 395.5 crore. The second installment came Friday. Heavy rain has caused flooding in a dozen districts, killing 20 people and displacing more than 4,000 people.
