Cabinet meetings to go paperless

In an attempt to go digital and promote e-governance, the Uttarakhand government has decided to make cabinet meetings paperless. CM Trivendra Singh Rawat announced on October 15. "The decision has been taken to move ahead in the direction of the green cabinet. We should be promoting eco-friendly ways of life. Making cabinet meetings free of paper is a step towards that," the CM said. He added that an 'e-cabinet' portal will also be initiated in which the decisions taken till date will be uploaded. The e-cabinet system will become fully operational in two months.
