Chouhan sworn in as MP CM

BHOPAL, DHNS: Shivraj Singh Chouhan was on Monday night sworn in as the 32nd chief minister of Madhya Pradesh at a simple ceremony at the Raj Bhavan in view of the coronavirus scare.

He succeeds Kamal Nath who resigned on March 20 after his Congress government shrunk to a minority following the defection of 22 MLAs along with their leader Jyotiraditya Scindia after a 17-day political drama.

Governor Lalji Tandon administered the oath of office to Chouhan. He is the first chief minister in the state to assume the office for a fourth time. He has made history by staying in the post for 13 years at a stretch from 2005 to 2018.
