Former CM and Congress leader Siddaramaiah interacting with the media in Bengaluru on Friday | PANDARABHARATI

Special court orders criminal case against Siddu, some officers

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mysuru

IN a major setback to former chief minister Siddaramaiah, a special court in Bengaluru which deals with criminal cases related to elected representatives, on Friday ordered the police to register a criminal case against him in connection with an 'illegal' land deal. Apart from Siddaramaiah, who is named as prime accused in the case, 10 others including sitting BJP MLA S A Ramdas, former MLC G Madhusudhan, serving and retired IAS and KAS cadre officials have been named as co-accused.

The designated court of the additional city civil and sessions judge, Bengaluru, has directed all the accused in the case (CNR No. KABCO 10184542019, Case No. PCR0000027/2019) to appear before it on September 23. A copy of the order is available with TNIE.

A Gangaraju, a social activist from Mysuru, had filed a Protection of Civil Rights (PCR) plea in the court of the principal senior civil judge and CJM at Mysuru in June last year alleging that Siddaramaiah, in connivance with the other accused, had purchased land and built a house in violation of MUDA rules at Hinkal (acquired for Vijayanagar extension) in the late 90s. Siddaramaiah had purchased 10 guntas of agricultural land in Hinkal village (Survey No. 70/4) and the sale deed was executed in 1997. The land was denotified later at the behest of Siddaramaiah, where he built a house of 120ftx75ft dimension, the petitioner said. Following a court order, the Lakshmipuram police had filed an FIR (0049/2018) under various IPC sections.

HOWEVER, in November last year, the police filed a B-report, which was opposed by the complainant. Following this, the Mysuru court rejected the report. The case was transferred to the special court in Bengaluru as the prime accused is a sitting MLA.

Now, the criminal case will be filed under IPC sections 120 (B) (criminal conspiracy), 197 (issuing/signing false certificate), 166 (disobeying law), 167 (framing incorrect document), 169 (unlawfully buying property), 200 (false declaration with intent), 417, 409 (criminal breach of trust) and 489 (criminal possession of stolen property).

The other accused are: D. S. Jaiah, ex-MLA, Sudhan, ex-MLA, Ajay Setti, Prasad, D. C. D. Rama Nagesh, Family Welfare Officer, Madegowda, neer, KUVS
