Parl passes teachers
reservation bill PH
4/7/19

NEW DELHI: Parliament on Wednesday approved a bill aimed at implementing a 200 point reservation system instead of 13 point roster system to fill up teaching vacancies in Universities and central higher educational institutions with the Rajya Sabha passing it.

The Central Institutions (Reservation in Teachers Cadre) Bill, which was moved for consideration by Minister for Human Resources Development Ramesh Pokhriyal Nishank, was passed in the Rajya Sabha by voice vote. Cutting across party lines, members supported the bill.

However, some members blamed the government for delay in bringing the bill.
