Suspended
assembly secy
among three
officials raided

Bengaluru: Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) officials on Thursday raided 16 premises of three government officials, including a suspended secretary of the legislative assembly.

S Murthy, then secretary of the Karnataka legislative assembly, was suspended on December 27, 2016 for allegedly siphoning of funds sanctioned for conducting the winter session in Belagavi in 2016-17. ACB officials searched Murthy's Sadashivanagar residence, another house in HMT Colony, two flats in an apartment complex and coffee estate in Kodagu district's KNidugani village.

The other two officials raided are K Hanumanthappa, executive engineer with Hoo-vina Hadagali Panchayat Raj Engineering subdivision in Ballari district, and Vijaya Reddy, junior engineer with Panchayat Raj Engineering subdivision, Humnabad taluk of Bidar district. TNN
