SC judge, others heap praise on 'most loved' PM

SATISH JHA
AHMEDABAD, DHNS

Prime Minister Narendra Modi was on Saturday hailed as a "visionary" and the "most popular and loved" leader in the country by a sitting judge of the Supreme Court.

The Chief Justice of the Gujarat High Court and several other senior judicial officers also praised Modi during a virtual event celebrating the diamond jubilee of the Gujarat High Court, where the PM released a postal stamp.

"I feel proud and privileged to participate in the release of the commemorative stamp, that too by our most popular, loved, vibrant and visionary leader, honourable Prime Minister Narendrabhai Modi," said Supreme Court judge Mukesh R Shah.

Justice Shah was a judge in the high court, who was elevated to the Patna High Court as chief justice before being promoted to the SC in 2018.

He wound up his speech quickly "as we have to hear and listen to our most loved PM".

Vikram Nath, Chief Justice of the Gujarat High Court, also praised Modi's leadership. "Our popular prime minister is a highly followable example of justice. Modiji's sense of justice towards his duties has played a major role in his popularity," he said.

Solicitor General of India Tushar Mehta said, "Under the prime minister's vibrant leadership, our great nation has already commenced its journey to become the Vishwa Guru (world's teacher)."

Kamal Trivedi, Advocate General, Gujarat HC, called Modi a "passionate and dynamic" leader "who has made the whole world take note of the emergence of new India".
