Ramesh Jarkiholi, BJP leader, who was admitted to the taluk hospital in Gokak reportedly for COVID-19 treatment, was discharged on Wednesday morning.

He went home from the hospital along with his staff.

He told journalists waiting in front of the hospital that he was suffering from COVID-19 and he would not speak. The doctors however, said that he was advised self-quarantine at home for two weeks.

On Tuesday, SIT officers had visited the hospital to confirm reports of his admission and had asked the doctors to inform them before the MLA's discharge. Dr. Antin told journalists that the hospital staff had acted as per the SIT instructions.
