THE fate of the state government depends on two men who will act one after the other this week. Based on Speaker Ramesh Kumar's decision to accept or reject the resignations of 15 MLAs, the action will move to Raj Bhavan and Governor Vajubhai Vala will be faced with four options.

Out of these, asking Chief Minister HD Kumaraswamy to prove his majority is the most likely and recommending President's rule is being viewed as the last resort by political experts.

The other two options before the Governor are dissolution
