Kharge gets threat calls
DH 10/6/20

BENGALURU, DHNS: Congress leader Priyank Kharge filed a complaint against an unidentified man who allegedly abused and threatened him and his father and senior Congress leader Mallikarjun Kharge over the phone in the early hours of Sunday and warned him to stay away from upcoming Rajya Sabha elections.

Priyank Kharge in his complaint to DG & IGP Praveen Sood on June 7, stated that around 1.30 am on Sunday a landline call came to his Sadashiva Nagar residence and his father Mallikarjun Kharge picked up the phone. "The unknown caller abused my father in Hindi and English and also told him to stay away from the upcoming Rajya Sabha election," he said. He added that, earlier, he received around 10 missed calls on his mobile phone.
