Congress MLA Priyank Kharge allegedly got multiple calls from an unidentified man who abused and threatened him on his landline and mobile phone early Sunday morning. "He informed the police that the caller spoke to him in Hindi and English," said a senior police official.

The caller reportedly threatened his father, veteran Congress leader Mallikarjun Kharge, warning him to stay away from the upcoming Rajya Sabha elections.

Mr. Priyank Kharge approached Director General and Inspector General of Police Praveen Sood seeking action. No FIR has been filed as of now.
