No business as 'privilege' ruckus mars assembly

Bengaluru: The legislative Assembly barely convened for minutes on Wednesday with the Congress and BJP creating a ruckus over breach of privilege. After four adjournments, the House was adjourned for the day by Speaker Vishveshwara Hegde Kageri. The logjam over the scuffle between Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar and former Speaker Ramesh Kumar continued with Congress pressing the Speaker to consider their breach of privilege motion against Sudhakar, while the BJP insisted upon moving a breach of privilege motion against Kumar. Despite attempts to solve the matter amicably, there was no end to the standoff, and with no question hour, zero-hour, debate or discussion on any matters. ENS
