Sushil Chandra
to take over as
new CEC today

NEW DELHI, DHNS: ^{13/4/21} Sushil Chandra will take over as the new Chief Election Commissioner on Tuesday succeeding Sunil Arora, who completed his term at the Nirvachan Sadan on Monday.

The Election Commission is set to witness the change of guard even as it is in the middle of conducting the assembly polls in the four states—

Kerala, Tamil Nadu, Assam and West Bengal

—as well as the Union Territory of Puducherry.

Chandra has been an Election Commissioner since February 2019.

President Ram Nath Kovind appointed him as the next Chief Election Commissioner, the Ministry of Law and Justice stated in a press release. He will now lead the EC in concluding the assembly elections in Kerala, West Bengal, Assam, Tamil Nadu and Puducherry.
