Jaishankar defends his RS election

New Delhi: EAM S Jaishankar told the Supreme Court on Monday that there is no provision in the Constitution or the election law which prescribes for the mandatory requirement of conducting election through single by-election. The submission was made in an affidavit filed by the minister in response to a petition by Congress leader Gaurav Pandya assailing his election to the Rajya Sabha. The minister said in an affidavit filed before a bench headed by Chief Justice S A Bobde which adjourned the case for detailed hearing in the third week of January.
