Parliament Session likely to be extended till Aug 2

The outgoing Budget Session of Parliament is likely to be extended by a week, till August 2, to complete pending legislative agenda of the government, reports DHNS from New Delhi. Parliamentary sources said that the government was considering to have five more sittings of both the Lok Sabha and the Rajya Sabha beyond the scheduled end of the Budget Session on July 26.

The government had planned to get Parliamentary approval for 10 ordinances issued during the inter-session period, including one on making instant triple talaq a criminal offence.

On Wednesday, the Union Cabinet approved The Companies (Amendment) Bill and the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code (Amendment) Bill - both to replace Ordinances issued in February-March this year.

An Ordinance has to be approved by Parliament within six months of its promulgation, failing which it gets lapsed.
