UDUPI, DHNS: The state government will take the ordinance route to implement Anti-cow Slaughter Bill, Minister for Port and Fisheries and Endowment Kota Srinivas Poojary said on Thursday. He told media persons that the Bill, cleared in Legislative Assembly, is unlikely to be tabled for discussions in the upper house and thus, it has forced the government to implement the Bill through ordinance route. The Act on Love Jihad is in discussion stages. But it will not be introduced in the form of an ordinance, he said.

The minister said Sapthagiri, the mass marriage programme, being planned by the Muzrai department, will be organised in every month. Under the scheme, 23 marriages are planned on January 20 and 23. Gold for the programme will be purchased from Cauvery emporium as goldsmiths have not participated in the tendering process, he added.
