The Union Home Ministry on Wednesday issued an order cancelling the Indian citizenship of Telangana Rashtra Samithi MLA Ramesh Chennamaneni for concealing facts.

Fresh orders were issued after hearing Mr Chennamaneni who had challenged the 2017 order cancelling his citizenship. The citizenship was revoked on the grounds that he held citizenship of Germany and did not fulfil the norms while obtaining Indian citizenship in 2009.

The issue was related to his visits during the 12-month period immediately preceding his application seeking Indian citizenship.

The Ministry said the competent authority had considered various aspects like Mr. Chennamaneni is a sitting MLA and has no criminal background. He has not been reportedly involved in any activity of terrorism, espionage, serious organised crime or war crime, it said.
