BENGALURU: Legislative Assembly Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri has barred the entry of print and TV journalists, including cameramen, to the Legislators' Home near Vidhana Soudha citing the 'invasion of privacy' of the MLAs.

The decision comes after the Speaker banned TV cameras from covering the Legislative Assembly sessions on October 2019. According to a notice by the Karnataka Legislative Assembly secretariat, the time spent by MLAs after their work hours at the Legislators' Home is private in nature. "At such an hour, if media personnel visit the MLAs, it will be an invasion of privacy. If MLAs seek to give an interview to journalists, the Speaker has ordered that an arrangement can be made outside the gates of the Legislators' Home," the notice read.
