Chaos in Council: Committee + submits interim report

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
BENGALURU

The interim report of the House committee that went into the turn of events on December 15 in the Legislative Council, when pandemonium prevailed, was submitted to Chairman K. Prathapchandra Shetty here on Friday.

The 84-page report was submitted by senior member and committee chairman Marithibbe Gowda. The other members of the committee are B.K. Hariprasad and R.B. Thimmapur. BJP members A.H. Vishwanath and S.V. Sankarur opted out of the committee soon after it was constituted by the Chairman.

"It was not possible to submit the full report within 20 days and that is the reason the interim report is being submitted," Mr. Gowda said. The committee held five meetings.

The committee took the version of the Council secretary and marshals who were present on that day. The committee also felt that it was necessary to scan through the CCTV camera managed by Public Works Department and video clippings of private channels that recorded the proceedings.

The purported suicide note left behind by the late Deputy Chairman S.L. Dharme Gowda, who was at the centre of the controversy and is believed to have been hurt over the developments, has been sought from the Home Department.

The fight over the no-confidence motion moved against the Chairman had taken an ugly turn on December 15 as Dharme Gowda, who was in the Chair, was physically dragged out by Congress members while BJP members tried to pull him back. Pandemonium prevailed and the Chairman was prevented from entering the House.
