CM urges leaders to introspect at meet democracy can succeed only if public welfare becomes the primary goal of every elected representative, chief minister BS Yediyurappa said on Wednesday as he asked leaders to introspect. "The ruling party and opposition have to work with caution so that no untoward incidents happen in the assembly and council. But as public representatives, we must ask ourselves whether we are following it," he said at a discussion titled 'An Introspection - Preventing the Decline of Parliamentary Values'.
