No-confidence motion against
TN Speaker DH

25/6/19
CHENNAI, DHNS: Tamil Nadu
Assembly will take up on July 1 the no-confidence motion
moved against its Speaker P Dhanapal by Opposition DMK
for his action of issuing show-cause notices to three ruling AIADMK MLAs for alleged
"indiscipline."

Winning the no-confidence motion is crucial for the AIAD-MK as the party still survives on a wafer-thin majority in the 234-member Assembly whose current strength is 232.

For the no-confidence motion to be accepted, the DMK needs to ensure that it gets 117 votes, but the combined strength of the party-led alliance is 108 and even if it gets the vote of independent MLA TTVDhinakaran, it could only reach 109.

As of now, the AIADMK's strength in Assembly is 123.
