The BJP on Wednesday roped in veteran leader and former Chief Minister S.M. Krishna to address its bypoll convention in Hoskote Assembly Constituency where its own leader is in the fray as a rebel against official candidate N. Nagaraju (MTB). The party presented a galaxy of leaders, including Chief Minister B.S. Yedi-yurappa, Revenue Minister R. Ashok, as part of its strategy to woo voters in this politically sensitive constituency.

Mr. Yediyurappa declared that it was not possible for any power to defeat Mr. Nagaraju. He said the State government had already sanctioned ₹100 crore for filling 30 tanks and another ₹60 crore for supplying Cauvery water to Hoskote.
