A notice given by Leader of the Opposition Ramesh Chennithala seeking permission to move a resolution in the Kerala Assembly under Rule 130 to recall Governor Arif Mohammed Khan is legally admissible, Speaker P. Sreeramakrishnan said on Tuesday.

The action to be taken on the resolution will be decided in consultation with Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan and the Business Advisory Committee of the Assembly that is scheduled to meet on January 31, the Speaker said. Quoting rules and procedures and conduct of business in the Assembly, the Speaker said the resolution moved under Rule 130 by Mr. Chennithala was "legally admissible" and that he could not comment on the "content of the resolution and on political mileage".
