Legislature session from July 12

The monsoon session of the Karnataka legislature will be convened from July 12, the state Cabinet decided on Friday, reports DHNS from Bengaluru.

"The legislature session will start on July 12 and conclude on July 26," Rural Development and Panchayat Raj (RDPR) Minister Krishna Byre Gowda said, briefing reporters.

This will be the first session of the legislature after the Lok Sabha election, in which the BJP swept 25 out of the 28 seats in Karnataka, handing out a massive defeat to the Congress-JD(S) combine.

The BJP is expected to corner the government on drought, the multi-crore IMA fraud, the decision to sell 3,667 acres to the JSW Steel in Ballari, among other issues.
