HK Patil and Madhuswamy
test positive

^{29/9/20}
Bengaluru: Law and parliamentary affairs minister JC Maduswamy is the latest among ministers to test positive for Covid-19. Madhuswamy, who attended the monsoon session of the legislature which ended on Saturday, is being treated at Manipal Hospital in Bengaluru. MLAs and officials who interacted with him during the session now fear infection. Doctors treating Madhuswamy say he is asymptomatic.

Senior Congress MLA HK Patil also was tested positive. "I am asymptomatic but quarantined myself for 10 days," Patil, a former minister and Congress in-charge of Maharashtra, tweeted on Monday morning. He is the third MLA who attended the session to test positive.

The others are deputy chief minister Govind Karjol and Gandhinagar MLA Dinesh Gundurao. TNN
