Affidavit case: Prajwal receives notice

Hassan: Hassan MP Prajwal Revanna received a court notice after it was published in a section of local Kannada daily recently. He has been asked to appear before the court on September 30 over allegations that he had entered incomplete or false information in his election affidavit. It may be recalled that the Karnataka High Court had published the notice in a local Kannada daily of Hassan district to summon the MP in this regard.

The court took this decision as Prajwal did not receive a notice following the election petition filed by Congress leader Devarajegowda and A Manju, who lost to Prajwal in the recently held Lok Sabha elections. The court said that as he had defaulted by not appearing on the aforementioned date, the petition will be heard and determined in his absence in this regard. Prajwal had recently said that he would abide by the directions of the court.
