FIR against ex-MLA for damaging reservoir gate

^{Times of Andhra}
Bengaluru: A criminal case of obstructing government officials from discharging their duty and damaging public property was filed against former Tumakuru MLA MT Krishnappa and his supporters, after they allegedly damaged the escape gate of Hemavathi reservoir.
Balakrishna, chief engineer, Hemavathi reservoir, filed the complaint, saying Krishnappa argued with him and his staff, directing them to release water to Turuvekere, Tumakuru. However, reservoir staff, including Balakrishna, turned down their demand, saying that water would be released as per the schedule. An irked Krishnappa and his supporters went to the dam and opened the gates that releases water to Turavekere. Since they did it by force, the escape gate got damaged," read the complaint. TNN
